

WILSON MAY REQUEST USE OF U. S. TROOPS TOMORROW

CARRANZA MUST RELEASE PRISONERS AT ONCE OR FIGHT

DEADLINE ON REPLY FROM MEXICAN LEADER WILL EXPIRE TONIGHT

Washington, D. C., June 28.—No official intimation had reached the state department today as to when or how Carranza would reply to the American note. An overnight despatch from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City brought only the information that a special car left yesterday for Vera Cruz carrying seventy Americans, including twenty-one from Guanajuato.

There was nothing to indicate today that the Washington governments' position had undergone any change. Officials still expected President Wilson to appear before congress tomorrow if Carranza failed to act or replied unfavorably. Anything short of immediate release of the American troops would be unsatisfactory. No suggestions or proposal of negotiations in this regard will be accepted. It was pointed out today that Secretary Lansing's note presenting the demands sought to open new discussion of the Carranza incident. The fact that the men were captured and were being held was viewed as a hostile fact, requiring immediate repudiation by the defacto government through release of the prisoners.

Mr. Rodgers' statement that Carranza officials appeared to be conducting an inquiry into the Carranza clash was interpreted here as indicating rather that the reply would support previous assertions that American troops were responsible than that a change of attitude was to be expected.

While it will not affect the general policy of the government, a final report on the Carranza fight from General Pershing is expected with interest.

The official account of Capt. Morey must be supplemented by that of troopers who were with Captain Boyd. A board of officers may be assigned by General Pershing to assemble a report based on the stories of all commanders.

Eliseo Arredondo, the Carranza Ambassador designate, still had received no word early today from his chief about the status of the diplomatic negotiations. Mr. Arredondo has informed General Carranza of the determined sentiment in the United States demanding the release of the American troops but has had no reply.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—This was regarded by Washington officials as the crucial day in negotiations with Mexico.

It was probably the last day allowed General Carranza in which to comply with the United States' demand for release of 23 troopers held as prisoners at Chihuahua City. If his reply, either by act or in a communication, does not arrive by night or if it is unsatisfactory, President Wilson is determined to go before congress, probably tomorrow, and ask authority to rescue the prisoners by force.

Unofficial reports stated that General Carranza's reply was on its way to Washington, having been dispatched from Mexico City last night. Officials had no intimation of its nature. The state department telegraph room was watched closely by administration officials for the note which may have been transmitted by Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City.

The Mexican embassy also was the object of special interest on the chance that the note may have been sent to Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate to be delivered by him.

Indications were that congress would comply with President Wilson's request, in case he should find it necessary to send an armed expedition against Chihuahua.

Only incidental consideration was given by the state department.

TROOPS PASS THROUGH CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, O., June 28.—A. and B. Batteries first field artillery of the New Jersey National Guard arrived here today on their way to the border. Their trains were transferred from the Pennsylvania lines to the Louisville and Nashville and sent south, only remaining here a short time.

MONNETT WITHDRAWS

Columbus, O., June 28.—Frank S. Monnett, of Columbus, today sent notice to the secretary of state withdrawing as Democratic candidate for United States Senator. No reason accompanied his withdrawal.

U. S. SOLDIERS WILL FACE THIS MEXICAN GUN IN CASE OF WAR

ENLISTED, DIVORCED AND MARRIED IN FIVE DAYS

Canton, O., June 28.—William J. Van Tassel, Canton roller, enlisted in Company G, Friday. Monday he was divorced and on Tuesday he married Mrs. Minerva G. Haines, of Canton. Mrs. Van Tassel is the first war bride in Company G.

WILL SUPPLY ARMY BOYS WITH 'SMOKE'

America has a Lady Nicotine. She is Mrs. George J. O'Keefe, wife of Special Sessions Justice O'Keefe, and one of the most ardent charity workers in Brooklyn.

Mrs. O'Keefe will form an organization of women who will provide the American soldiers on the Mexican front with tobacco.

CASEMENT CLAIMS GERMANY WAS NOT BEHIND UPRISING

London, June 28.—Dramatic developments are expected at today's session of the trial of Sir Roger Caseement, for high treason. Chief among these is a statement on his own defense which Sir Roger is prepared to make from the dock.

Francis P. Doyle, the Philadelphia attorney, who is acting as counsel for Caseement, informed the Associated Press, before the opening of court, that no witnesses would be called for the defense, but that the arguments of counsel would be supplemented by a statement from the prisoner. As was indicated yesterday, the main defense will rest on the argument of counsel for the quashing of the indictment on the ground of lack of jurisdiction.

In reference to the decision of Caseement's counsel not to call any witnesses, Mr. Doyle said:

"Inasmuch as this trial affects not only the life of Sir Roger Caseement, but also the aspirations of the Irish nation, it has been deemed advisable."

ENEMY FORCE MENACING PERSHING'S COLUMNS

Columbus, N. M., June 28.—Large forces of Carranza cavalry are being concentrated a short distance east of General Pershing's line of communication between Colonia Dublan and El Valle, according to reports brought here today by army motor truck men. The truck men assert that the American expeditionary commander is drilling his men regularly and is sparing no effort to make his force as mobile as possible. A large number of empty motor cars are being kept in readiness at field headquarters for rapid transportation of infantry. It is explained that this is being done because of reports that bandits have been seen in the territory occupied by the American commander.

Believe Crisis Will Be Successfully Settled

New York, June 28.—Romulo S. Naon, Argentine Ambassador to the United States, issued a statement here today in which he said that while he made no offer of mediation looking to the settlement of the differences between the United States and Mexico, he was "in candor confident that the present crisis would be peacefully settled."

GERMANS CONTINUE TO DRIVE RUSSIANS; TAKE A VILLAGE

Berlin, June 28.—(Via London) Announcement was made by the war office today that the Germans have captured the village of Winiewka, west of Sokul, and Russian positions south of that point.

DEADLOCK OVER THE RELIEF CLAUSE

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Insistence upon its amendment to the house military drafting resolution, striking out the million dollar relief appropriation for dependents of enlisted men, was ordered by the senate today after a disagreement on that issue had been reported by its conferees.

Senators Chamberlain, Warren and Hitchcock were reappointed the conference committee and directed to renew negotiations with house conferees.

Another effort probably will be made to induce Representative Hay and his colleagues in the house to eliminate all reference to the relief including even the senate proposal to provide exemption from service for enlisted men with dependents.

CARRANZA PROTESTS ALLEGED OUTRAGES

Washington, D. C., June 28.—A note protesting against outrages against Mexican citizens alleged to have been committed by an American force, 3,000 strong marching from San Geronimo toward Valle was sent to the state department today by Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate on instructions from the Carranza foreign office. Vigorous complaint against the alleged arrest and mistreatment of 300 civilians at La Cruce is registered in the note, with a request that the officers responsible, be punished and steps taken to prevent a recurrence of such an incident.

Apache scouts with the Americans were charged with brutal treatment of the people in their homes.

The column referred to is presumed to be a part of General Pershing's main force moving northward from the advanced base at Nantiquipa in accordance with orders today in the lines preparatory for a possible general assault by the Mexicans.

COWBOYS CROSSED BORDER

Columbus, N. M., June 28.—Army officers are investigating a report that the murderers of William Parker and his wife on their ranch southwest of Hachita, were caught early today on this side of the border, and killed. A message received by a relative of the Parkers said the bandits, six in number, were wiped out.

It was reported that while employees of the Diamond A. ranch, nine miles east of Hachita were helping hunt the slayers of the Parkers, the ranch was raided last night and a number of horses taken.

Cow boys of the Diamond A. and U-Bar ranches today sent a courier to Hachita with the news that they had located a hot trail and were following it into Mexico. It was feared that fresh complications may arise from the venture of the cowboys. They probably are well into the interior by this time.

FOUR SHIPS ARE SUNK

London, June 28.—Four vessels were announced at Lloyds shipping agency today as having been lost. They were the Japanese steamship Daiyetsu Maru and the Italian steamship Clara and the Italian ship Aventino, which were sunk by hostile warships and the Dutch steamship Wanlostroom, which foundered. The crew of the Dutch vessel was landed.

THOUSANDS OF TROOPS ENROUTE TO THE BORDER

Chicago, June 28.—Orders were issued today by Major General Thomas H. Barry, in command of the Central Department of the United States movement to the border of all units of the Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Wisconsin National Guard, which are "Ready."

The following statement was issued at General Barry's office:

"Orders have been issued directing the despatch of all units in Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Wisconsin, when mustered in, examined and reasonably ready. The Illinois cavalry will go to Brownsville, Texas. All other Illinois troops to San Antonio, Kansas troops will go to Eagle Pass, Texas, Missouri troops will go to Laredo, Texas, Wisconsin troops will go to San Antonio, Texas. Other troops will be dispatched whenever reported reasonably ready."

New York, June 28.—Some 14,000 National Guards troops from the department of the east already are on their way to the Mexican border today. Upwards of 40,000 more are in state camps or armories waiting to be sent away as soon as equipment and transportation can be provided.

Other New York regiments are concentrating at Camp Whitman awaiting equipment and their turn to start for the border.

Pennsylvania troops are under orders to proceed to El Paso, while those from the District of Columbia will go to Bisbee, Arizona.

McMillan Made Hit With The Men's Union

The only thing lacking toward making the meeting of the Men's Union held at the First Christian church, Tuesday evening, the most memorable one since the organization was perfected two years ago, was a larger crowd. The thirty or more who were there, however, were more than pleased that they had come, for from the time President C. I. Cheyney rapped for order until the last Amen had been said, there was not a dull nor unprofitable moment. The meeting, in fact, was full of good things, the chief feature being an address on "Inspiration," delivered with telling force by John McMillan, president of the Men's Bible class of Trinity church. Mr. McMillan was in hearty accord with his subject—in fact he himself, is a mighty interesting package of inspiration and is never happier than when doing something toward building up men's Bible classes. His talk was a treat, and he was warmly felicitated upon its excellence. Those who were present went home with something to think about, and which, if crystallized into action, will result in much good. Mr. McMillan does not need an invitation from the men of the First Christian—the latch string will always be hanging out to him.

Another feature of the evening was the various reports made by the men of the Union, who had so wisely invested a "Bull Moose" nickel given them two months ago, as to earn a

Waterworks Squabble To Reach Serious Point

Ironton, June 28.—It now appears that the water works "squabble" is about to reach a critical stage. Black-Draught.

Elmsford, N. Y.—"Only a few months ago, I prayed I would not see morning," says Mrs. Charles E. Jones, of this town. "For five long years, I was an invalid, and tried everything I heard of to obtain relief. My husband spent over four hundred dollars trying to get me well."

I read in one of the Ladies' Birthday Almanacs about Theodor's Black-Draught, and decided to try it. I took five packages, and am able to say that I can sleep like a baby, and eat, or drink anything I want, and walk two miles, easily. Feel better than I have for years.

Before taking Black-Draught, I was troubled with my heart, had indigestion and constipation. Twice, I was given up to die, but thanks to Black-Draught I did not.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught.

For indigestion, constipation, headache, dizziness, malaria, and all disorders of the liver and stomach, Theodor's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable and valuable remedy. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients and acts gently, yet safely. Good for young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

It was used in the South Sea Islands some hundreds of years before Europeans and Americans found out that they were necessary to their own refinement. This South Sea finger bowl is half a coconut shell, beautiful, useful, practically unbreakable, yet not of sufficient worth to prevent its being thrown away tomorrow and replaced by a fresh one from the nearest palm.

MEXICAN MOVE IS BLOCKED

Nogales, Ariz., June 28.—American occupation of Nogales Sonora loomed close early today when eight Mexican soldiers were driven back by a United States sentry post as they tried to cross to the American side.

The Mexicans withdrew and Major William Brooke ordered his men to "Drop anybody you see acting suspiciously. If a shot comes from over there, we'll go straight across."

Handel as a Child. George Frederick Handel, the son of a Saxon barber and vintner, was only five years old when his "fingers wined" of vine melodies from the spirit, which a good natured aunt had smuggled for him into an attic, so that no sound of it might reach the ears of his father. At eight his playing so astonished the elector of Saxony that his father was compelled to withdraw his opposition and allow the genius of the boy to have fair play. And before he had reached his twelfth birthday year, Handel was known throughout Germany as a brilliant composer and virtuoso at the court of the emperor, Louis XIV.

Help the Children. There is nothing in all the world as important as children, nothing so interesting. If you ever wish to go in for some philanthropy, if you ever wish to be of any real use in the world, do something for children. If you ever wish to be truly wise, study children. We can dress the sore, bandage the wounded, imprison the criminal, feed the sick and bury the dead, but there is always a chance that we can save a child. If the great army of philanthropists ever exterminate sin and pestilence, ever work out our race's salvation, it will certainly be because a little child has led them.—David Starr Jordan.

"Love's Crossed Trail" is a five part mystery melodrama, directed by Joseph A. Golden and featuring Marie Empress in the role of the partner of the proprietor of a gambling house. The mystery centers around a murder and is not explained until the last reel. Marie Empress, the feature player, is permitted to appear in various disguises. The fact that she usually immune to kindly feelings happens to fall sincerely in love with one of her victims accounts for much that happens the fatal night in the gambling house.

He believed a skirmish had taken place on the Santa Maria river, about fifty miles from Colonia Duhlan.

Military authorities here said they had heard nothing of an engagement between American and Mexican forces along the Rio Santa Maria. It was pointed out, that a column of the Eleventh cavalry has been scouring that district in search of survivors of the Carrizal battle. Consciences of

THE DOUBLE ACTION ROD

Not long ago a friend out in Illinois enthusiastically solicited our venture in oil lands. No he didn't solicit either, he sent us a hurrah call to jump right in and get a goodly share of the millions in it. But our ears were deaf and the small pile we had accumulated remains intact—we haven't just had the time yet to spend it—and we now realize we made the mistake of our life, which kind friends say has been filled with 'em in a financial way. We realize this because our friend told us he had located the acres underflowing with sufficient oil to bring the price of gasoline down from one to three cents by a diving rod, a first cousin to the witch hazel that finds water where there ain't none. Don't laugh at that, it is so. We know it because the Germans say it is, and since the war began we have learned that German genius knows everything and then a great deal more besides. The Germans know the power of the diving rod because they have been using it in the arid wastes beyond the Nile and over the shining sand deserts of Arabia, using it and discovering water where for forty centuries none had known to flow or stand within a thousand miles away or ten hundred below. There can't be any doubt about it because the wells, filled with cool limpid water are there as the gracious and visible proof of what the diving rod pointed the way down to.

Hence we missed our opportunity of being a millionaire oil magnate. For does it not follow that if the witch, hazel, which digging up some forgotten lore, the Germans found would wiggle and wobble whenever it was held over an underground pool of water, there is another sort of rod that would reveal the hidden riches of oil, which is another sort of moisture.

SOME COUNTRY THIS

The head of the automobile manufacturers' board of commerce notifies the government that the factory members of his association are prepared to furnish the government all its need in their line up to 900 trucks a day and 1,000 automobiles.

Anywhere else than in America that would be taken as a vain boast, but here it will excite only some surprise, not a bit of incredulity, though credulity is strained a trifle when this notice is accompanied by the announcement that all these cars can and will be furnished, if necessary, without curtailing the supply to individual buyers.

And is it any wonder we are proud of the flag of such a country and where a week ago, with less than eighty thousand men under arms, we are today quite ready to send a half million to the front and are jauntily talking about an army of three million as though it were but a few.

The Dayton Journal is starting a campaign to beautify roadways. That is all well enough, in time, but the time isn't until you have the roadways of the right sort.

These do not seem to be particularly felicitous times for the candidate. No boy shows interest in his story, with all being so busy and other interesting things to attract.

It is going to be our boys for awhile anyway, because the government doesn't want married men and heads of families.

After all is said it does not appear possible we can have any worse opinion of the greasers than they have of the gringos.

It is agreed with the New Hampshire Portsmouth Times that the Blue Carpathian Mountains must be looking mighty blue to the Austrians about this hour.

A vivid imagination, possibly has more to do with the accusation that Germany is backing up Mexico's bumptiousness than has the fact.

We came mighty near letting it go by, but still we'll tell you, that right now is the time to stand for a safe and sane Fourth. Another reason for sparing the powder is we might need it in the impending brush with Mexico.

We hardly accuse the French and Germans of being Indians, but the way they are giving and taking back trenches from each other reminds us of the proverbial Redskin giver.

We wouldn't be surprised if Carranza has some hint of what it means to be between the devil and the deep blue sea when he reads that latest note from Washington.

The Bull Moose party is too dead to skin. The wonder is, nevertheless, that it is so completely done for what ever it was begun for.

The government will not accept for service the individual, whose instep lies straight along the ground. We bald-headed dignitaries protest against having the flat-foots placed in the same class with us.

It will hardly be necessary to rob the cradle, but the hefty youth of fifteen springs can enlist, provided his parents say the word.

We thought for a long time it wasn't going to be much of a campaign, but in the past few days we have changed our minds as the signs begin to multiply it is going to wind up as a sizzler.

EDITORIAL TRAVEL NOTE

(W. G. Sibley in Gallipoli Tribune)
Arriving at Columbus I dropped in to see "Sweet Kitty Bellairs" at a moving picture show. While absorbed in the play a woman sat down beside me and made unmistakable signs of wishing to attract my attention. "What, ho!" thought I. "Here's a good judge of nature, mainly pubescent, or perchance some lone damsel seeking sound counsel, who has been attracted by an intelligent and open countenance. I'll risk a squirt at her!" So I turned in the dim light, and behold, it was a Gallipoli lady friend now living in Columbus. You may guess who she was. I am not going to embarrass her by telling. She declined my cordial invitation to dinner, ostensibly because she was not flossed up, but probably because she knows I travel on a very light pocket book.

Rolla Clymer says she's a slow sister who won't flirt a little when the train is pulling out.—Kansas City Star.

Might just as well surrender without further parley. The platforms of the two parties are sufficient to show fair woman is going to have her way, and that though only a small part of her wants it.

Funny thing this English language. Vision and sight are synonyms. But while you can make a hit with a woman by telling her she is a vision, you are likely to get a hit from her if you say she is a sight.

The Houston Post says T. R.'s announcement that he is out of politics is surplusage, because the U. S. P. convention knocked all the politics out of him. However, it overlooks the opportunity to sneak in by the back door.

We don't pose as a military expert, but, as we figure it, the success of the Russians on the eastern front merely shows victory will come to the side that can hold out the longest against financial exhaustion.

We guess it is true we are selfish as proud of the things we have done as those we are going to do, and don't.

Down in these parts the flood wall extension is so far but a heap of sand and other material, but it looks mighty good at that.

Old Juge must be having a terrible amount of trouble, judging by the frequent and profuse tears he sheds over the whole land.

Even the once impulsive Teddy sprouted caution and took more than one look before he leaped.

NERVOUS RESTAURANTS

There has sprung up within the last few years a type of chaotic cafe in which you can save a dime, possibly fifteen cents, on a meal, and in so doing subtract a week or ten days from the total of your life. Primal conditions of food gathering are restored in these restaurants. The law of the survival of the fittest is re-lived. Thousands fall under a foot in these restaurants every day in the struggle for loaf sugar and loiter sandwiches. These cafes are sending wagonloads of neurotics to the hospitals.

You can hear their clatter for three blocks. Sometimes you can hear two of these restaurants at once, in which case it is almost deafening. Since the clatter of these restaurants has been added to the rattle of street cars it is pretty hard to endure the cities.

These restaurants ought to pad their cinaware. This would be expensive, but they could raise the price of a dish of spinach a fraction of a cent, and the average increase of human life in our cities would justify the measure. (Or they could serve a little less spinach. What is one sprig of spinach more or less?)

[Protected by George Matthew Adams]

If many more buzz wagons are introduced into these parts the roads will have to be widened or else permits issued for a certain number to run on certain days and other certain numbers to run on other fixed days.

The Cheerful Dandelion

Two little dandelions grew side by side in a great big yard and they looked as much alike as two peas. But they were not a bit alike in anything but their looks, as you shall soon see.

One was very bright and happy, so happy and cheerful that his friends had nicknamed him Sun; and the other was very sad and mournful and whiney, so much so that his friends, what few he had, nicknamed him Gloom. But he didn't care about nicknames, he was too busy counting his troubles to care what they said.

"Oh, dear," said he sadly; "such a dreadful wind as we are having to-day! I can hardly hold my head up at all!"

"Then lie down, as I do," laughed Sun, good-naturedly. "It's fun to bend your head and let the wind blow over!"

But Gloom didn't think so—he fretted about the wind all the day. The next morning the sun shone hot and fierce.

"Oh, dear!" sighed Gloom; "I'll not last through the day at this rate! Did you ever feel anything so awful as this heat?"

"Pretty hot," agreed Sun; "but think of the blossoms it brings out and the fields of corn!"

"I won't think of them," retorted Gloom. "What do I care about them? I'm thinking about myself. I'm so hot now I can hardly hold my head up!"

In an hour they'll be all closed up and then my life will be over. Oh, dear! Oh, dear! Oh, dear, dear, dear!"

Now Sun was hot too, just as hot as Gloom was. But he didn't fret about it, no, indeed. He wasn't very well that noon his petals would be closed, so he had a good time while he could. He stretched out his yellow petals just as wide as ever he could and he called to all his friends, the sunbeams and breezes and grasses.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, June 28—"And who are you?"

"Nick Carter!"

"Not the famous government detective?"

"The same!"

"Hands flew up. Wild cries rang out for the game was up."

No more will New York boys read such stirring stuff for Nick Carter is dead. He was killed by the film. S' death! The movies have done their foul work well. Frank Merriwell and Diamond Dick have also been wiped out by the relentless movie.

There are only two publishers in New York who continue to publish nickel novels today. Most of them came from the house of Frank Towney. They do not deal with the red compassed heroes of old, however. They have all gone out into the pale night—just as they threw the villains over cliffs in the long ago.

The creator of Frank Towney and other nickel novel heroes now writes insipid moving picture stories. But it was out of the dreadful stuff that he made a fortune big enough to permit him to own several cars, a home on the Hudson and other nice little things like that.

When Copeland Townsend started a movement for a Roosevelt for Secretary of State League, he was just a mere admirer of Col. Roosevelt as many other citizens are. He had never dabbled in politics and did not know he was playing with the forked end of lightning, so to speak.

Well, anyway the newspaper boys got on to it and began interviewing him and the New York newspapers were filled with stories of the plan—and incidentally two of them claimed it as their own idea.

In the meantime Mr. Townsend found himself deluged with telegrams, letters and phone calls. He was visited by this delegation and that delegation, and finally had to flee to his country home to escape for a few days. In the interim the movement had gained national impetus and the originator is being hounded to drop his other business.

Since night life, that colored suburban activity of men, is dead in all the great capitals of the world, New York is becoming more and more an all night city. Where exuberance and art and insatiable youth once swept alone in Europe, there is nothing now but the deep shadow of war.

But in New York night life has waxed, grown rotund. Exiles of all the capitals are here trying hard to worry through the nights of banishment with something akin to the doings of other days.

It so happened that the writer was forced to ride down Broadway in a surface car at the early hour of 6 o'clock the other morning. Men and women in evening clothes were going into dancings and cafes for their last fox-trot and a bite of breakfast before retiring for the day.

Franks of Stammering. Stammering, like other ailments, has its freakish ways. A correspondent recalls the worst stammerer in his school, who was also—now what do you think?—the best soloist in the choir. His stammering allowed him to sing what he could only speak with difficulty, and a harassed master, aware of the fact, would take advantage of it as a last resource, so that a delighted class and its Latin grammar in E sharp when it came to the stammerer's turn to be questioned.—London Chronicle.

Two of a Kind

A lady selected some purchases in a store, asking that they be kept for her until the next day. When she returned she could not remember who waited on her. After puzzling over the matter she approached one and asked: "Am I the woman who bought some embroidery here yesterday?" "Yes," replied the girl, stolidly, and turned to get it.—Christian Register.

The Old Harpsichord

Into an attic, dim and gray,
Filled with the wrecks of long ago,
From hidden nook to rafters low,
Alone, I stole one rainy day,
And while the tinkling shingles shed
The unseen raindrops overhead,
With yellowed keys and shrunken board,
I found an ancient harpsichord.

In careless heap, beneath its east,
With tattered, dog-eared covers torn,
And leaves with loving fingers worn,
Was music of a day long past.
Only the spider traced the dust,
Flecked with the thick of gathering must.
Long silenced were the rambling keys
From half-forgotten melodies.

I listened to the raindrops beat
In rhythmic note. About the eaves
I heard the rustle of the leaves.
The whisper of the wind was sweet,
And then, from out the deepest gloom,
Ghosts stole into the quiet room,
And gentle ghostly fingers bent
Upon the ghostly instrument.

'Twas but the measure of the rain
That vove the echoes sweet to me;
The visions that there seemed to be
Were but the shadows on the pane.
As when the breath of some perfume
Steals, wealth-like, from a long-closed room,
And with its scent brings back once more
The dreams of days and friends of yore.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, June 28.—Speculative sentiment was again much depressed today by the Mexican situation, the first yielding a considerable part of the preceding session's gains.

Early trading in stocks today was rather inconclusive the usual mixture of gains and losses being recorded at the outset. Changes during that period were mainly fractional apart from a decline of a point in Mexican Petroleum and an advance of as much for Green Canons.

Later the trend was toward more general improvement Reading and Union Pacific leading the rails with substantial gains in Marine preferred and United Fruit, Willys-Overland and Studebaker, Crucible Steel and other special and industrial, including Col. Ford.

Dealings diminished steadily in the first hour and came almost to a dead halt before mid-day, the output for the forenoon being the smallest of any session in several weeks. Attention was again mainly directed towards Washington where the Mexican situation is discussed.

Prices were well maintained in the absence of pressure, the only exception being Industrial Alcohol which yielded over three points on small offerings. Some rails augmented early gains, notably Ontario and Western, which responded to the resumption of dividends. Bonds were irregular.

Active stocks like Reading, Petroleum, Crucible, Studebaker and Alcohol rallied 1 to 2 1/2 points on short covering in the final hour. The closing was irregular.

CO. K HAS SECURED 25 NEW ENLISTMENTS

Recruits are being secured and are passing the medical examination each day, according to Capt. Joseph Horchow, ranking officer Company K, Ohio National Guards. Eight passed the examination Tuesday afternoon, making a total of twenty-five accepted enlistments since Saturday night.

There will be a special meeting of both the old and new members of Company K, Wednesday evening at 7:30. The meeting will be held at the armory, Seventh and Chillicothe streets. Every man is urged to be present. "We have some very important business to discuss, and it is imperative that every one of them be there," said Capt. Horchow.

The officers of the company desire several additional recruits. There are several who have been given the medical examination, but have not been passed by Dr. W. D. Schafer.

The names certified into the Adjutant General's office, Columbus, Wednesday, are: Andrew Bertram, Elmer Showalter, James Diment, William Johnson, Herman Haverkotte, Hallie Parker, Oscar Barker and Jesse Rice.

Privates Hobson Parker and R. V. Nutter are now in charge of the recruiting tent, which is located on the Gallia street esplanade. Sergeant Clifford B. Anderson has been transferred to the armory.

Columbus, O., June 28.—The long delayed movement of the Ohio National Guard to the mobilization camp here is expected to begin tomorrow. Officers of the guard are expecting supplies to arrive today which will complete the equipment necessary before mobilization can begin.

The camp is in readiness for at least one regiment and will be put in shape for two additional regiments each successive day. The equipment which is lacking is said to include clothing, blankets and tents. This stuff is being sent from the government supply depot at St. Louis, Missouri.

A shipment of ordnance from the Rock Island, Illinois, arsenal is also expected today.

If the two shipments arrive during the day orders will probably go out tonight to the Eighth Regiment, Colonel Edward Vollrath, Bucyrus, commanding, to entrain at once for Columbus.

GETTING READY FOR THE BORDER

FIELD ARTILLERY, N.Y.N.G. CAMP AT VAN CORTLANDT PARK. (COURTESY U.S. ARMY)

CONGRESSIONAL CONFEREES ARE DEADLOCKED ON WAR MEASURE

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Final action by congress on the Hay resolution to empower the president to draft national guardsmen into the federal service was being delayed today by failure of senate and house conferees to agree on the much-discussed provision appropriating $1,000,000 for the relief of dependent families of guardsmen.

There was no disagreement, however, over the main feature of the resolution providing for drafting of guardsmen and the provision to permit consolidation of scattered units of the national guard. Army officers are more anxious for immediate action on the latter provision, since without the authority it would give, they believe, the work of getting guardsmen to the border is being delayed.

Prospects today were that the difficulty might be solved by the relief proposal being taken care of in a separate measure.

Resinol Soap

The regular use of Resinol Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, can usually be relied on to keep the complexion clear, the hands white and soft, and the hair healthy, glossy and free from dandruff.

If the skin or scalp is already in bad condition, a short treatment with Resinol Ointment may first be necessary to restore to normal health. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For samples free, write to Dept. 15-1, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Tom Moore In The City

Tom Moore, who recently returned from the Cincinnati workhouse, called at the police station Wednesday morning after some personal belongings he had left behind at the time he went to the Queen City. Tom is all right up because relatives had his aged and widowed mother committed to the Athens hospital during the time he was incarcerated.

Thousands of people go through TIMES WANT ADS every night. They read them with profit.

PLANNING A FINE VACATION

Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker, pastor of Trinity M. E. church is planning a month's vacation trip. Rev. and Mrs. Strecker will visit her parents and other relatives at Amesville and from there they will go to Marietta to visit his parents and other relatives. From Marietta Rev. and Mrs. Strecker, her parents and his parents will go to Chautauque, N. Y., to spend about two weeks.

Park Policeman Dan Stevens marched a boy named Brock to police headquarters Tuesday morning because he had disregarded warnings and climbed into a mulberry tree in York Place. The boy was dismissed with a warning.

"New Post Toasties"

From House to House the Good News Spreads

Many housewives have found a happy solution of the breakfast problem in New Post Toasties.

These new corn flakes are distinctive in that they bear a self-developed flavor all their own—the delicate, fascinating flavor of choice, white Indian corn. Unlike other flakes, they do not depend on cream and sugar to make them palatable.

Try a handful without cream and sugar—note the fine flavor and new form; also the tiny "bubbles" on each flake. These bubbles are a distinguishing characteristic and are produced by the quick, intense heat of the new process of making, which also brings out the wonderful flavor.

Although the New Post Toasties are a great improvement in flavor and form, they cost no more than ordinary flakes. Have a package delivered for tomorrow's breakfast.

New Post Toasties

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

CLASH BETWEEN AMERICANS AND MEXICANS, REPORT

Mexico City, June 28.—There has been a clash between Mexicans and Americans in northern Sonora, according to a report received from Brigadier General Calles, military governor of Sonora.

No details were given.

Later advice says that two Americans, J. T. Hawken and A. P. Dickson, were killed at Agua Prieta and that another American, Morton Handen, was arrested.

T. R. TO OFFER DIVISION FOR MEXICAN WAR

New York, June 28.—Theodore Roosevelt is preparing to offer a division of approximately 12,000 men to the United States Government, accompanied by his application for a commission as major general, in the event of war with Mexico, and a call by the president for volunteers, it was learned here tonight from authoritative sources.

Elaborate plans have been made quietly to recruit the organization from picked men throughout the country and it is said that Colonel Roosevelt has worked out every detail that would expedite the mobilization of the large fighting unit. Even the horses and mules necessary are said to have been pledged.

SENTRY SQUAD AND MEXICANS EXCHANGE SHOTS ON THE BORDER

Nogales, Ariz., June 28.—Shots were exchanged shortly before midnight last night between a sentry squad on the west side of town and a detachment of Mexican soldiers.

The corporal in charge of the post reported that he challenged the Mexicans, that they continued to advance without replying, and that after they were well over the line, they fired a shot at him. He then ordered his squad to fire, retreating to a point 150 yards north of the line to prevent being flanked. The Mexicans retreated.

When reserve companies of infantry were rushed to the line, the Mexican border guard opposite withdrew into the Mexican town. About 20 shots were fired by the United States troops.

A Mexican officer then rode up to the customs house and said his men had been fired on while they were on their side. Major William Brooke, officer of the guard, said every sentry was posted well back of the line. No casualties were reported by the Mexicans.

Later the reserve troops were withdrawn.

At a conference at the line with Major Brooke, the Mexican commandant, General Orsa Garay, promised a rigid investigation and severe penalties for any of his men found guilty.

British Hammering The German Lines; Capturing Prisoners

British Headquarters in France, June 27, Via London June 28.—British guns continued today the bombardment over a broad front which was begun yesterday. The Associated Press correspondent, riding seventy miles behind the lines, found the same regular pounding of positions on both days, whether in the Somme region or along the Vimy ridge.

Going to a point on high ground which allowed a broad sweep of vision in a rolling country or forward to observation posts in the trenches, the correspondent found the horizon always bounded by shell bursts. There might be a lull at one point for awhile, but soon the inferno in that direction was renewed.

Under cover of the bombardment the British made numerous trench raids last night, bringing in groups of prisoners.

The British released gas at certain points, but discontinued this when the weather was found to be unfavorable.

SOCIETY

Miss Gertrude Madelyn Schreck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Schreck, and Mr. Patrick Joseph Coll, son of Mrs. Anna Coll, of Seventeenth street, were married this morning, at seven o'clock, at St. Mary's church. They were attended by Miss Mary Barron and Mr. Ralph H. Scheffer. Rev. Father Goebel said the impressive service, after which the bridal party were driven to the home of the bride's parents, on Third street, where an elegant breakfast was served. The sweet young bride was attired in a handsome gown of white voile, Georgette crepe and lace. She wore a white picture hat trimmed in maline and white violets. She carried an armful of bride roses. Her maid wore a pretty gown of white marquisette, trimmed in lace, and built over green silk. Her large loghorns hat was trimmed in sunburst roses, and she carried an armful of sunburst roses. The breakfast was faintly served in three courses, the table being adorned in pink and white, and the ice cream and cake were also in the pink and white colors. The guest list included Mesdames Anna Coll, James Carvin, Charles Brunner, Charles Rice, Charles Ackley, H. D. Keams, of Sunsumville, Clifford Bickel, Rev. T. A. Goebel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schreck, Mildred Schreck, Leo and Paul Schreck and John O'Keefe.

The bride presented her maid with a beautiful lace pin. Mrs. Keams found the ring secreted in the cake; the groom found the coin; the bride's father found the button; and the thimble was found by Mrs. Carvin, aunt of the bride. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a visit in Jackson and in Charleston, W. Va., to be gone a week, after which they will live with the groom's mother, 2029 Seventeenth street. The pretty bride on her trip wore a handsome suit of shepherd's plaid and a very jaunty hat. The bride, an attractive and popular girl, recently resigned her position as book-keeper and stenographer in the office of the East End Furniture store, where she has been employed for the past nine months. The groom, a fine young man, is stock-keeper at the Selby shoe factory.

The executive board of Trinity Methodist Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Amberg, to arrange the new year books. All members are urged to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Second Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Schirrmann, where there were about thirty present. The regular program was presented and Mrs. Edgar F. Draper was present and gave a delightful talk. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Helen Alderman has returned to her home in Ironton after a visit to Portsmouth friends.

Mrs. W. M. Haggerty was hostess at this afternoon's meeting of the Mizpah Club at her home on Twelfth street. Besides the club members there were present Mesdames W. H. Tipton, Mrs. Conrad, Mrs. Grifith. The afternoon was spent in needlework, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Elmer Knost will be hostess at the next meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Sprague and two children, Austin and Elizabeth, will arrive home tonight from a ten day's visit to relatives in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Frost Davis expect to motor to Cleveland Saturday to spend the Fourth with the former's son, Frank Ferguson, who is employed with the National Carbon Company there.

Mr. James Roy McNeil and Miss Rosa May Peirce, of New Boston, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. M. H. Bridwell, 1310 Officers street, on Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The happy couple have their new home all ready furnished on East Gallia avenue.

A charming scene was taken at Rose Ridge yesterday, at the afternoon party, where the leading lady, Pollyanna, one of a party of forty lovely young women, met the leading man. In the story she accepts an invitation to take a tour of the city. Today the picture machine will cover this part of the story. The scene at the Golf Club at 4 o'clock today promises to be an interesting and pretty one.

Section Three of the First Christian church will hold a social session at the home of Mrs. George Sperry, Jr., 1611 Sixth street, Thursday evening of this week. It was stated in Monday's Times that the meeting would be held on Thursday afternoon. This was a mistake. The good women of this section have made arrangements to entertain in a right royal manner and a large attendance is desired. Mrs. Sperry will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. F. W. Sheridan. Come at 7:30 o'clock and spend an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Henrietta Pollak, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pollak, of Oakland avenue and Kinney's Lane. She will spend several weeks here, recuperating from a recent illness she underwent.

Mr. A. Goebel Sellards, son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Sellards, of Offener street, and Miss Gladys Snider, of Laport, Ind., who has been visiting at the Sellards home, slipped off to Ironton a few days ago and were married. They were accompanied by Dr. Ernest Sellards, Miss Eleanor Sellards and Dr. Allen, all of Ashland. This announcement will come as a surprise to their many friends in this city.

Miss Thelma Crain, one of New Boston's prettiest young ladies, will be married Thursday afternoon to Mr. Walter Schuyler, of Third street. The wedding ceremony will take place at the Second Presbyterian church about 4:30 o'clock, with Rev. George P. Harst officiating.

Miss Emma Seidell, of South Webster, was in Portsmouth shopping Wednesday.

Miss Marjorie Purcell came home yesterday afternoon after attending a house party on the Miami river, near Franklin, Ohio. She was accompanied home by Miss Edna Fiegenbaum, of Edwardsville, Ill.

Mr. Rex Cross, round-house machinist at the N. & W., was called to his home in Hagerstown, Md., on account of the illness of his brother.

Mrs. David Bertram and daughter, Jean, of Offener street, are visiting the aged parents of Mr. Bertram at Bedford, Pa., and will also visit relatives at Altoona, Johnstown and Pittsburgh.

Mr. Jack Murray, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams, of Twelfth street, and other friends, has gone to Cincinnati before going home to Youngstown.

Mr. John C. Bauer will go to Wheeling, W. Va., to join Mrs. Bauer in a visit with their daughter.

Mrs. C. K. Smith's class meeting, planned for tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Donald Maguet, 1914 Nineteenth street, has been postponed until Thursday evening, July 6th.

Mrs. Samuel M. Johnson, the Misses Emma and Caroline Johnson, Messrs. Sherrard and Kenyon Johnson will leave Saturday morning in their car for Connersville, Ind., where they will be joined by Mr. Johnson, who will go on the train. They will attend the centennial and home-coming and will spend several days there.

Graves Williams returned today after a short visit with friends in Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hitchcock and family have returned from a few days' visit at Fire Brick, Ohio.

The Evidence Is At Your Door.

Portsmouth proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

W. H. Fowler, 515 Sixth street, Portsmouth, says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for several years. I was so bad that I could hardly bend over and many times when I did, sharp pains darted through my body. The kidney secretions passed too often and there was a burning sensation. They also contained sediment like brick dust. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Stewart's drug store, and was cured."

Popular Jokes.

The most popular joke which has been published in any language in the history of the world is stated to be that which appeared in an obscure corner of the Punch almanac for 1845. It read, "Advice to persons about to marry—Don't!" It would be interesting to know who was its author. Another, founded on a similar subject, was the "Advice to persons who have fallen in love—Fall out!" One of the most brilliant things that ever appeared in our contemporary was the brief dialogue between an inquiring child and his impatient parent: "What is mind?" "No matter." "What is matter?" "Never mind."—Westminster Gazette.

Courage of a Bird.

A curious incident is vouched for, showing how bold a robin may become when its food supply is threatened. A lady threw into her garden a boiled potato for the birds, and shortly afterward a robin appeared and began to peck at the food. Soon the robin was interrupted at its meal by a half grown mt. which commenced to nibble the potato. To the surprise of the lady who was watching the proceedings the robin immediately attacked the rat and drove it off. In a little while the rat came forward again, and another encounter took place, the robin once more proving victorious. A third essay was made by the rat, and this also ended in the retreat of the rodent.

 partment today to Mr. Arredondo's communication sent late yesterday asking that thirty Mexican civilians, whom he said had been arrested in California and Arizona, be released, and complaining against the unofficial embargo against shipment of foodstuffs and merchandise across the boundary into Mexico.

All questions, including that of possible mediation, were regarded as subsidiary to that of the freeing of the American troops at Chihuahua. Officials were gratified to learn by a report of the British consul in that city that the prisoners were being well treated and that only two were slightly wounded.

CASEMENT

able not to call any witnesses in this country, and that it would have been necessary to go to Germany for them, but that the government would not permit it.

Alexander Sullivan, chief counsel for Sir Roger, resumed his argument in an attempt to show the indictment was faulty when the court convened today. After he had concluded his address the court overruled his motion to quash the indictment.

After the ruling against quashing the indictment, Sir Roger delivered a statement prepared by himself. Sir Roger said:

"Money was offered to me in Germany more than once and offered liberally and unconditionally, but I rejected every suggestion of the kind and I left Germany a poorer man than when I entered it. Money I could always obtain, from my own countrymen, and I am not ashamed here to acknowledge the debt of gratitude I owe to many an Irish friend and sympathizer who did freely and gladly help me when I was on the continent.

"I trust I have made that statement clearly and emphatically enough for all men, even my bitterest enemies, to comprehend that a man who in the newspapers is 'just another Irish traitor' may be a gentleman.

"The attorney general of England thought it consistent with the traditions of which he is the public representative to make a thinly veiled allusion in his opening address to the rising in Ireland of which he brought forward no evidence in this case from first to last, and which, therefore, you and I, gentlemen, as laymen, would have supposed that he would have scrupulously refrained from mentioning.

"Since the uprising has been mentioned, however, I must say categorically that the rebellion was not made in Germany, that it was not directed from Germany, that it was not inspired from Germany, and that not one penny of German gold went to finance or assist it."

"Gentlemen, I have touched on these personal matters because, I intended as they were, to reflect on my honor, they were calculated to tarnish the cause I hold so dear."

As Sir Roger made the declaration that he never had accepted German money his voice trembled with emotion and he leaned towards the jury as though supplicating the jurors to believe his statement.

Immediately after the prisoner had finished speaking, Sergeant Sullivan rose and began an eloquent address in summing up. The attorney said the charge against Sir Roger was that he had aided Germany during the war. He declared that Sir Roger was recruiting men for service in Ireland after the European war had ended and that there was no idea of giving aid to Germany. Sir Roger, he said, never had asked Irishmen to fight for Germany and not one atom of aid had been rendered to Germany.

Sergeant Sullivan asserted the plan was that an Irish brigade was to be quartered in Germany

E. L. Convention Now In Full Swing

With a goodly number present the District Epworth league convention opened at Manly M. E. church, Clay and Eleventh streets Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with Prof. Alfred Stewart, president, as chairman. Prof. Stewart is one of the hustlers of the league at Manly church. The questions to be discussed at the convention are of vital interest to Epworth League workers and the evening session tonight and

Thursday morning sessions is expected to be largely attended.

The chief address tonight will be given by C. R. Burnhart, secretary of the Ohio Conference Epworth league. Tonight's meeting starts at 7:30 o'clock.

The opening sessions started with the Manly pastor Rev. W. T. Gilliland delivering the address of welcome. Devotional services were in charge of J. M. Lowe, president of the Manly E. L. Rev. J. E. Di-bert of Wesley Hall Mission gave a very interesting talk on the Mission and its good work. Miss Belle Burton, local league member, gave a helpful talk on: "How to Secure Leaders for Devotional Meetings." Miss Margaret Reir was absent and Mr. Lowe took her place, giving a talk on "What Do You Consider the Greatest Need of Your Church?" Thursday morning Rev. C. E. Chandler will give a talk and an election of officers will be held.

"PAT" COLL, WITTY BRIDEGROOM, OFF ON HONEYMOON TRIP

The experiences attendant upon Miss Gertrude Schreick, book keeper at the East End Furniture Co., and "Pat" Coll, employed in the supply room of the Selby Shoe Co., who were married at St. Mary's church Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, were quite embarrassing to say the least.

The happy couple were driven to the Washington Hotel, preparatory to taking a bus for the C. & O. depot at South Ports mouth. When they reached the hotel, there was a rattle of tinware that caused the whole lobby to file to the sidewalk. When the bridegroom pulled out a suit case, he found attached to the same about two dozen tomato cans. The bridegroom colored up, but showed he was some wit, when he said, "Good Lord, I thought that such a rattle always went with a Ford, but I see the cause is an attachment of our relatives."

The suit case was plundered with many of the newly wedded slugs, such as "Two hearts now beat as one—the Lord knows how they'll heat later," and "Just Married—Show us a good time." The happy couple, however, were not so embarrassed as to give up their wedding trip. They left here Wednesday for Charleston, W. Va., where they will spend a week with Mrs. Coll's aunt. From there they will go to Richmond, returning home about the middle of next month.

Today's session of the trial was brought to a sudden and dramatic close. While summing up for the defense, Mr. Sullivan collapsed as he was in the midst of an impassioned appeal, and the court adjourned until tomorrow morning. At that time the defense will continue its plea.

Boys Take Box; When They Get Home Find Machines Inside

The farsightedness of Patrolman Grant Goings and a lucky combination of circumstances made possible the recovery of a couple of talking machines which disappeared from the Sixth street side of the Marting Bros. & Co.'s store Tuesday afternoon.

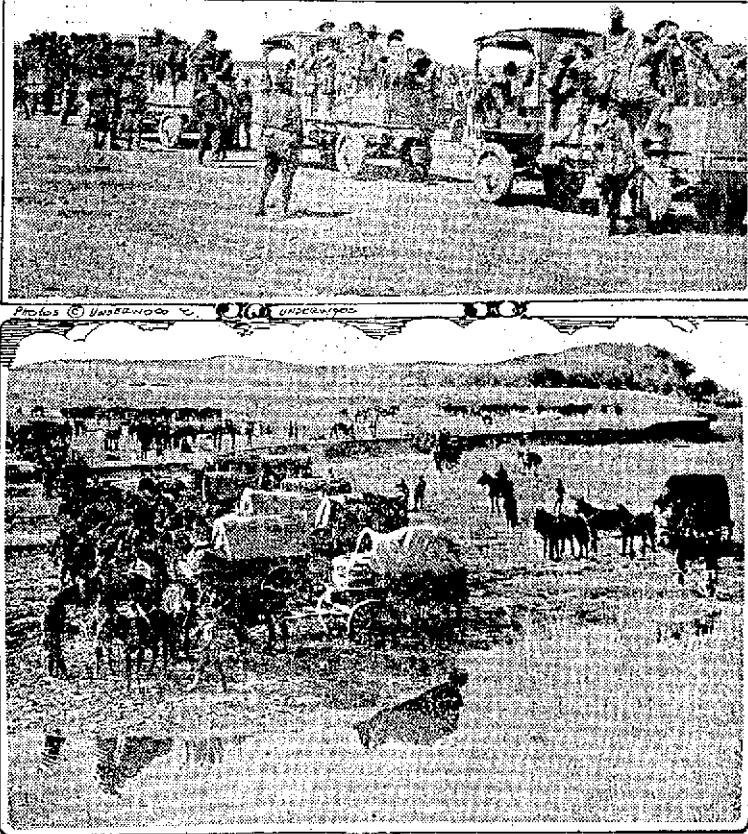

The company was shipping back four of the machines because of some defects. They were packed two each in a box. An employee was bringing them up from the basement on the sidewalk elevator located near the Sixth street entrance of the store. He himself was obliged to walk through the basement and come out through the store. When he got to the sidewalk he found one of the boxes had disappeared.

Inquiries soon developed the fact that two boys had come into the store through the Chillicothe street entrance and asked for a box. They were told that one of the men in the rear might have one to sell. They replied that they did not wish to buy but thought they might get one gratis. They continued through the store and out the Sixth street entrance.

Police Chief Henry Clark as soon as notified began a vigorous search through alleys in the vicinity of the store. Later encountering Goings on Market street he told him what had occurred and explained the size of the box to him. Goings upon arriving home was informed by his wife that two boys had just been there to borrow their wheelbarrow saying they wanted to use it in returning a box. It quickly flashed through the officer's mind that it might be the very box referred to by the chief. He accordingly began an investigation and was rewarded for the box containing the two instruments was found at the home of one of the boys, William Sammons, aged 13 years, of 1111 Mill street. His companion John Petridge, aged 11 years, of 1108 Front street, was also located. The boys claimed the man inside the boxes on the sidewalk as it contained only heavy pasteboard and the like. They carried it to a push cart that they had in the alley. They said that when they discovered, upon reaching home, that the box contained some machines they promptly prepared to return it. Goings took the box and ordered the boys to appear in police court Wednesday morning.

The boys when questioned by Mayor Kaps, Wednesday morning, still insisted that a man had told them to take the box. He ordered them taken before the juvenile court.

MANY ATTENDING C. E. CONVENTION

Springfield, O., June 28.—Delegates to the thirty-first annual convention of the Ohio Christian Endeavor Union continued to pour into this city early this morning. They were met at the trains and escorted to Memorial Hall, where they registered. This morning was devoted to sectional conferences regarding various phases of the work. Last night the delegates were given a cordial welcome by Rev. Dr. E. P. Thompson, of the Second Presbyterian church; City Manager Charles E. Ashburner and General Committee Chairman George H. Bell. In the absence of Rev. T. C. Lawrence, of Cleveland, the response was made by Rev. A. L. Miller, of Steubenville.

Rev. Dr. John E. Day, president, of Columbus, delivered his annual address in which he pointed to the wide field for work, and referred to the need of a revival spirit of self sacrifice. Akron, Norwood and Hamilton are after the next convention. Delegations from these cities appeared in attractive costumes.

COULD YOU GET NEW JOB AT 72?

John C. Southall, Well Known Merchant, Makes A Great Record.

What would be the average man's prospects of getting a new job in his seventy-second year on the strength of being able to do the work of a man of forty?

Mighty slim chances, the big majority of humanity would say. But not so with John C. Southall, coal dealer, of Fourth and Terrace avenues, Dayton, Ky.

"Like the tens of thousands of others, I thought I would have to leave hard work to the younger generation when I reached the allotted three score and ten," said Mr. Southall, recently. "For more than ten years I felt this condition coming on."

"Even when well past my prime I was pretty strong and weathered many an arduous gale by sheer vigor."

"First my stomach failed me and then I seemed to contract catarrh. One of the members of my church suggested that I try Tanlac, which is almost a household word around Cincinnati and nearby cities."

"Thankful to say, while I am only on my second bottle, anyone in Dayton will vouch for my statement when I declare that I can do as hard a day's work as any man half my age, and with no great effort."

John C. Southall is known and revered by more than half the people of Dayton, Newport and the nearby cities. Mr. Southall is one of the oldest members, if not the pioneer attendant, of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church of Dayton.

It is upon such statements as these—from men and women of the highest integrity—which come in an apparently never-ending chain, that the wonderful success of Tanlac has been built. They are the guarantee of its merit extraordinary.

Tanlac, the ideal reconstructive tonic, is being especially introduced in Portsmouth at Fisher & Streichs, where the Tanlac Man daily explains its merits and what may be expected from its use.

CHILDREN WE WORRY ABOUT

Close confinement in school during the past winter, overstudy perhaps, an attack of the grip or tonsillitis, some one of these things is doubtless responsible for the condition of the child who shows a decline in health now.

What are the symptoms? Pallor and languor, a feeble appetite, dark rings under the eyes, bronchial colds. Very often the best efforts of the family physician fail in such cases and the condition of the child causes the most intense anxiety. Cod-liver oil, so often prescribed, generally fails because the weak stomach is unable to digest fats.

Try this treatment. Before breakfast each morning give the child the juice of half an orange. After the noon meal give one of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Keep this up for a few days and then give one of the pills after the evening meal also. Watch the child before beginning the treatment and again after two weeks. An increase in weight of from two to five pounds will show you that you are on the right track at last. Care is necessary in the diet of the patient and it will be well to send to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a diet book and the pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood." Both are free. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Champs Grab Another Game From The Burley Cubs 7 To 4

Spencer Men Secure Bingles When Needed; Bush's Batting Featured

(BY LOUIS SCHATZMAN)

Mayville, Ky., June 28. A pretty game of ball the Cobblers from Portsmouth downed the tail-end Cubs by a score of 7 to 4 here Tuesday. It was an interesting game all the way through, marred only by some rank decisions of Umpire Jacobs.

In the first the visitors scored one when Bauer walked, stole second and scored on McHenry's single.

The Burleys put over one in their half. With two down Kaiser walked and scored Williams' double to right.

No more runs were scored until the fourth when the Cubs sent in two more. Dilts singled, McHenry dumped one and both advanced on Kohlhecker's error, Spencer singled scoring Dilts and McHenry.

In their half of the fourth the locals secured one tally when "Yellow" Williams drove the ball to the right field fence for the circuit.

Portsmouth scored one in the fifth when Bush doubled and scored on Dilts' single.

The Burleys also put over one in the fifth. Wickham walked, Shepherd popped into a double play, Tinnin singled, Hoffman singled, Kaiser singled and Tinnin scored.

Three runs were scored in the ninth by Portsmouth. Demoe walked, Fisher singled, King out, Wickham to Coyle, Bush tripled scoring Demoe and Fisher; Bauer out, Hoffman to Coyle, Bush scoring. Dilts out, Williams to Coyle.

Our boys scored one run in the ninth when two pinch hitters delivered. McGraynor batted for Shepherd and tripled to left. Tinnin popped to Bauer. French (for Hoffman) doubled, scoring.

Huntington Plans For Second Half

Huntington, June 28.—Declaring himself heartily in favor of a rejuvenation and saying that in all probability a new ball club will grace the diamond in Huntington uniforms before the second season in the Ohio State league, President Phil G. Jacks outlined a policy which will prove popular to the Booster fandom and will undoubtedly place him on a pinnacle in local baseball history which has never been attained by another at the head of a club here.

President Jacks had just arrived from Cincinnati where he attended the special league meeting. With glowing reports from other towns and feeling satisfied with the prospects which will develop within a few days, Prexy Jacks uncovered himself to the extent that he will have the town talking before another week rolls around.

Fans Are Sore

For the first time this season Cincinnati fans are after Manager Herzog. They claim he doesn't know how to handle his pitchers, always inserts a strike out pin hitter and that he is using Wingo behind the bat when he should be using Clarke. Outside of that we suppose Herzog is a first class manager.

Sims Joins Teammates

Pitcher Clarence Sims, who since Sunday had been visiting home folks in Lancaster returned here last night. He left this morning for Mayville to join the Champs and will probably pitch today's game.

Home Run—Williams. Sacrifice Hits—McHenry, Singleton, King, Coyle. Struck Out—By King 1; Shepherd 4. Bases on Balls—Off King 4; Shepherd 3. Base Hits—12 hits, 4 runs off King in 8 1/2 innings. Left on Bases—Portsmouth 5; Mayville 8. Double Plays—Demoe to Bush to Spencer; King to Spencer; King to Demoe to Spencer. Time—1:20. Umpire—Jacobs.

Colts Have Great Record

Those pesky Lexington Colts insist on winning every time the Champs do. They have won 12 out of their last 13 games and if the Champs had not been maintaining the same rate of speed they would have been overhauled. The Colts have a well balanced machine and will be hard to beat out in the second half. Catcher Biddy Beers has been a tower of strength to the Gymnans.

Moran Is Favorite

Frank Moran is going to be a slight favorite over Jack Dillon when they enter a slug in the Brooklyn club's ball yard tomorrow night. It is the most important fight in Dillon's long and interesting ring history and he has prepared faithfully for it. He declares he is going to show up Moran just like Jess Willard did. We shall see.

THE CARDINALS AGAIN BEAT REDLEGS

Cincinnati, June 28. St. Louis bunched hits in the first and last innings and won from Cincinnati here Tuesday 8 to 2. The local team played a bad fielding game and was also unable to hit with runners on bases. In the first inning Betzel singled and took second on Smith's sacrifice. Long then tripled. Betzel scored and Miller cleared the bases with a home run in center field.

WILL BOLSTER SENATORS

The Charleston Senators are to be bolstered for the second half. If Wal Brown is able to put a winner in that city it would draw more people than any other club in the league. The daily attendance in Charleston is around the 40 mark. The team has been an in and out of the first half.

DAUBERT RELEASED BY MANAGER POWELL

According to telegraphic information from Charleston, Manager Powell has released Shortstop Jake Daubert. Many consider him one of the best infielders in the league. Daubert has been captain of the team. There is said to have been friction between Powell and Daubert for some time. It is known that Daubert would like to manage the Senators.

FANS HAVE HAD SOME OF THEIR "NUMBERS" LONG BEFORE THIS

Cleveland, June 28.—Cleveland American League players wore numbers on the sleeve of their uniforms in yesterday's game with Chicago, for the first time in the history of baseball, so far as known. The numbers correspond to similar numbers set opposite the players' names on the score cards, so that all fans in the stands might easily identify the members of the home club.

Brown Sues For $12,500

Chicago, June 28.—Mordecai Brown, of three finger fame, has brought suit in federal court here against Otto Sifel and Phil Ball, late owners of the St. Louis Federal, for $12,500. Brown alleges that he signed a contract to manage the St. Louis Federal team for three years and was given the gate after one year's service with the resultant loss of two years salary.

Taking Testimony In The Jordan Murder Case

The State And Defense Outline Their Course, Jury Finally Secured

After examining ninety-five talesmen a jury was secured in the local common pleas court Tuesday afternoon at 5:05 to hear the case of the state against Roy Jordan, charged with murder in the first degree. The jury comprises Joseph B. Craigmyle, decorator, 1414 Lincoln street; Joseph L. Kountz, clerk, 236 Second street; John Wurster, druggist, 1407 Sixth street; J. J. Brushart, grocer, 423 Waller street; Harry H. Anderson, druggist, 1423 Grandview avenue; Lawrence N. Allard, student, Sciotoville; Earl T. Adams, manufacturer, 1129 Second street; W. W. Anderson, merchant, 451 Brown street; John Warheit, retired, Sixth street; Lem Odle, contractor; William N. Gableman, manager Play House, 1521 Robinson avenue and Gustav H. Heinisch, retired, 1611 Fifth street.

The defense dismissed thirteen on pre-emptory challenges and the state one. Those dismissed by the defense were: V. S. Vandervort, William Williams, Lewis W. Baker, Charles W. Hill, Milton H. Shumway, Robert Lanter, Phil M. Streich, William Dalton, Samuel Wisc, John Wente, Albert Brunner, Frank L. Marting and Robert Baker. The state dismissed John Bishop.

Two hours before court convened Wednesday morning the room was filled with spectators. It was sort of a cosmopolitan audience with mainly women and children occupying one side and men the other.

Roy Jordan, the accused, in custody of Sheriff E. W. Smith came into the room five minutes before the time for court to convene. He drew his chair close to his counsel and held a short consultation.

An audible murmur broke over and rumbled through the ranks of the spectators when Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Mickelthwait stepped in and placed a bundle upon his desk. The package contained the main bones taken from the head of Mrs. Pamela Jordan, the murdered woman.

County Clerk, John W. Hall summoned the witnesses, 54 in number, to the court room and administered the oath. The state has 29 and the defense 25.

The four Jordan boys, upon whose testimony the salient features of this important case will hinge, came to the trial in custody of Sadie Hamor, matron of the Scioto County Children's Home. Fred and George Jordan, the youngest, wore white sailor blouses and straw hats.

"There they are," exclaimed many as the boys made their way through the crowd.

When Clerk John W. Hall called the name of George Jordan, the prisoner arose and held up his right hand. His counsel was compelled to tell him that the court official had reference to George Jordan, his eight year old son and not to him.

After the witnesses were sworn Judge Thomas summoned the attorneys in the case to his bench and held a short conference relative to the controversy that has arisen between the attorneys for the defense and the prosecution concerning the request of Attorney Theo. K. Funk to see the Jordan boys without witnesses present.

The state offered to compromise by allowing the proposed conference providing Judge Thomas was present. This offer was rejected.

Generalities of the evidence which the state expects to present for the consideration of the jurors and court were given by Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Mickelthwait in his opening address.

The state, according to the prosecutor, expects to show that Roy Jordan, the husband, sent his two older sons, Ray and James, back on the hill shortly after the family had eaten breakfast on the fatal morning and that when they returned later they found their mother dead. The state expects to prove that the wounds were produced from the contents of a shot gun and that an incision across the forehead was caused from the blow of an instrument.

The prosecution also stated that the evidence would show that Roy Jordan, the accused, was present during the absence of his two sons. That Jordan and his wife "were not getting along as well as they should and that the husband had made several violent and brutal assaults" upon his wife at divers times. Also that he had "threatened and did take her life."

A sweeping denial of the allegations made by the state, was entered by Attorney Theo. K. Funk. He said he expected the evidence to show that Mrs. Pamela Jordan had met her death "while her husband was at the barn, several hundred yards away from the house, milking."

A short history of the life of the prisoner was given and of the events subsequent to his marriage to Pamela Foster. "We expect to show," declared Attorney Funk, "that the children were taken in charge after the crime by Sheriff E. W. Smith and that they were under the care and influence of the jail authorities and the prosecutor's power for several days. I believe it was something like fourteen days that they were kept there without a sign of an affidavit or charge, before Roy Jordan had counsel."

The defense also stated that they expected to show that the husband was a kind father and that he had refused to allow his wife, who was sick, to go to the barn on the morning of her death, to milk.

In concluding, the defense said that the evidence offered by the state would be circumstantial and not of such a character that would prove that Roy Jordan took the life of his wife.

The first witness called by the state to prepare the foundation of their case was John D. Wilson, an architect, who prepared a sketch of the Jordan house and grounds in the Flat Woods, near Lucasville. The plat was admitted as evidence and shown to the jury.

Coroner J. W. Daehler testified he went to the Jordan home May 2 in response to a telephone message which stated that a woman was found dead. He said that he had held a post mortem over the body of the woman, whom he learned was that of Mrs. Pamela Jordan and had, later, exhumed the body and severed the head to make a more thorough examination of the wounds.

At this juncture, the state produced an enlarged photograph of the head and offered it to the witness to point out the specific wounds. The defense objected and they were sustained. The court held that the photographer would have to be subpoenaed to first prove that it was a true picture. Virgil Fowler was then sent for.

Several questions relative to exhuming the body were asked the witness.

"About when did you exhumed the body?"

"The first Saturday in June, I believe it was June 3."

"Why did you exhumed the body? You say that you held a post mortem on the day you were called there?"

"I took the body up at the orders of the prosecuting attorney."

"Was the body decayed?"

"No, sir."

"Was there any mould on the draperies of the casket?"

"Yes, sir, a little along the sides."

"Did you re-bury the head?"

"Yes, sir."

Virgil Fowler, who arrived, testified that the head had been taken to his store and photographed. The photographs were then admitted as evidence.

The next witness was Dr. O. R. Mickelthwait. He testified that he was called to the Jordan home and found Mrs. Jordan dead.

When asked what the nature of the wounds were he said: "When I first looked at her, as I would look at anyone, I noticed powder marks about an eighth of an inch wide and extending over the left eye. The whole skull was laid open and half of the brains were gone."

Then a skull belonging to Dr. Mickelthwait was unwrapped from a paper bundle and handed to the witness. He held the yawning "death head" in his left hand and traced the fractures as he remembered them. The prisoner, who had taken considerable interest in the proceedings up to this point, turned his face away from the witness and watched the spectators.

"There was a lacerated wound on the top and middle of the head extending from the center of the nose about four and one-half inches back. The bone was fractured in several places," said the witness, as he traced the lines of the break with a pencil.

"What was the cause of death?"

"It was due to hemorrhages and the shock. It was caused by gun shot wounds."

"Did you observe any other wounds?"

"I observed a sharp incision or clean cut just about the nose that extended back about four and one-half inches."

"Could you tell how that wound was inflicted?"

"The laceration extended from just above the eye to a point on the top of the head. That is the outside of the skin and the inside edge of the skin were the same. It was clean cut."

"Could you tell the character of the instrument that would produce the wound?"

"No, except that it was done by some external violence."

"What would indicate that it was produced by external violence?"

"The fracture of the bone beneath and the incision or clean cut."

"Would you say that it could have been produced by a gun shot?"

"From the character of the fracture and the thickness of the bone I would say that it was not."

"Could you tell from your examination, the range or course the shot took?"

"Slightly inward over the left eye, upward and backward."

"How much upward?"

"Not very much."

"Any other wounds you noticed now?"

"Well about two inches from the center line through the nose on the left side, the lower jaw was fractured. Two of the front teeth were knocked loose and one tooth in the lower jaw was out."

"What was the condition of the skin about the jaw?"

"I did not notice it very much. But I think there were no evidences of violence."

"Would there have been evidences of it on the skin if violence had been used to produce the fracture?"

"Well, if death is instant, there will be no signs."

"Tell the court, whether in your opinion, the wound on top of the head could have been made by a hoe?"

"It could have been. Yes, sir."

On cross examination the witness was closely questioned about the wounds and was asked if he had experience with gun shot wounds. The physician said he had not and the defense objected to his testimony as an expert. The objections were not sustained. The physician held that a sharp clean cut could be produced by a club and he had considerable experience with cases of this nature.

"You could not tell the difference," declared the witness, "between a wound or cut made by a razor and one made by a policeman's hilly."

Dr. George W. Chabot testified that he had attended the post mortem over the head of the dead woman and had made a thorough examination of the wounds. He corroborated the description furnished by Dr. Mickelthwait.

"Could the fracture of the jaw been produced by the effects of the shot gun?"

"It hadn't anything to do with the lower jaw. It is mobile, movable and there is too much action for it to be effective."

"Could she have fallen," asked Attorney Funk, "against the bed and broken her jaw?"

"She could. Yes, sir."

Dr. J. R. Hillings corroborated the statements of the physicians that preceded him concerning the nature of the wounds, which he said he examined at the Hartman mortuary on the day of the death of the woman. He said the laceration on the top of the head had the appearance of a clean cut.

On being asked on cross examination concerning the action of the contents of a shot gun on the head, he said: "I have read that when the charge from a shot gun is transmitted, the contents will take the form of a liquid content and the force is transmitted in every direction and would cause the opening of the skull."

When questioned as to the cause of the incision, he said that in his opinion it could not have been produced by a shot gun.

Dr. J. W. Daehler was recalled and asked what caused the death of Mrs. Jordan. He said that he had found that she had met her death by wounds produced by a shot gun.

"At first," said Dr. Daehler "it struck me at the time that it might have been done with an axe, for the whole half of the skull was split open and half of the brains was gone. Some were lying on the floor, some on her apron and on the ceiling and walls. Later I examined a part of the brain which was in the next room and I found a small shot gun wad and two shot. I then came to the conclusion that it was done with a shot gun."

"Now, Dr. Daehler," said Attorney Funk, on cross examination, "I believe I met you not long ago and you told me that the wounds, all of them, would have been produced by the effects of a shot gun; did you not?"

"Yes, I believe I did."

"Are you still of that same opinion?"

"Well, I am in doubt. I don't know."

"In your examinations as coroner, and I suppose you always make a careful examination in such cases, was there evidence of an external injury over the broken part of the jaw?"

"No, sir."

Thomas Hartman, undertaker, Lucasville, said he was called to the Jordan home, May 2, by a message stating that a "woman was dead."

"When I got there I found her lying on bed. I noticed the floor had been mopped up. It was in the east room. Well, she had a scarf around her head and her face was facing south and I put my hand on her head and saw it was a very ghastly wound. I did not examine the wound particularly until I got to my office."

"What did you notice when you got to your office?"

"I found part of her skull off. I, of course, saw this before. I brought the body and washed, examined it; sewed up all the cuts and filled the head up and tried to get it in its natural shape."

The witness gave a graphic description of the wounds and told of the pain he had taken to place the corpse in condition for burial.

"Did you notice anything further?"

"Yes, there was a cut across the head. It started about an inch from the nose and followed the skull to the back of the head. Looked like it was caused by a sharp instrument."

"Lower down on her head did you notice anything?"

"Yes, her lower jaw was broken."

"Did you notice any other marks?"

"Yes, there was a mark across three of her left hand fingers. That I did not notice at first. It was brought out when I embalmed the body."

"Describe the mark."

"It runs from the joint; looks as though it had been struck with something."

"What did you find with reference to condition of room?"

"The south and east wall looked like it had been sprayed with brains. On a door facing the south there was brain tissue."

"Did you observe the ceiling?"

"I don't recollect as to the ceiling."

"Did you notice any blood on the bed?"

"The tick on the bed hung over the side of the bed and on that was a lot of blood and brain tissue. A place probably 8 inches wide. The spot was about 18 inches from the post or corner of the bed."

"Did you make any examination there for shot?"

"I looked for some shot and found some shot in the tick. Some half a dozen far that matter. I found them right in among the brain tissue and blood."

"When you arrived there who did you see there?"

"I think the first person was Mr. Jordan. I came up to him at the kitchen door and he said: 'Mr. Hartman, this is awful,' and I asked him what was the matter and he said his little boy called him while he was milking at the barn and told him that his mother was dead. We went into the room where she was and I asked him what caused it and he said that she had been having a terrible pain in her head and that it must have broken open."

Testimony relative to the position in which the body was found was given by Mr. Hartman.

"What did boy say?"

"He said his mamma went into the room and fell forward over against the bed and indicated the place where the blood spot was."

The witness had reference to the statement of George, the eight year old son.

"When you got there were there any people there?"

"Well, I don't know. There were several there."

"Where did you locate the powder or burned place?"

"A little below the left eye and around the eye."

"What was the range of that shot?"

"It ranged through the eye and came out just above the ear."

"If she had fallen against the bed," questioned Attorney O'Neal "is it possible that the marks across the fingers of the left hand could have been produced this way?"

"Well, I don't know but I suppose it could."

"Now, how high up on the wall did you see the blood on the wall?"

"Clear to the ceiling."

"Now, you said the wall was sprayed with blood and flesh. Do you mean to tell the jury that you could spray flesh?"

"Well, I did not say that. I said there was blood and small portions of brain tissue sprayed on the wall."

will ever notice the size of your lips.

Dear Miss Wise—I used to have a pretty, clear complexion, but it has been muddy lately. Do you know what I can do for it? I do not drink tea or coffee and I do not eat rich things. ROSE.

A cup of hot water taken a half hour before breakfast will often clear the complexion. If the plain water is unpleasant, a pinch of salt will give it flavor. Do not put too much salt in or the solution will act as an emetic. If in a few days this does not clear up your skin you had better consult a physician as there may be some internal disorder.

U. S. A.
Write to the Red Cross Nursing Association, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Is there any way to make the lips smaller or to make them appear smaller. Mine are so thick and are so conspicuous. Thank you. M. E.

There is nothing you can do to reduce your lips. They probably do not appear half as conspicuous as you seem to think. Keep your teeth so white and clean, and smile so pleasantly that no one the best families are not allowed to go places with boys at night. I think your attitude is right. Of course she cannot see things as you do now but as she grows older she will thank you for it. Make a comrade of your daughter and by trusting her with your confidence she will in return tell you her secrets and ask your advice.

Dear Miss Wise—Would you kindly give me a nice meat sandwich recipe. I get so tired of just plain ones. Thank you.

MRS. D. S.
Take any kind of cold meat, such as beef, veal or pork, and to each half-pound add six boned sardines, six chopped olives, a teaspoonful of French capers and a tiny dust of paprika pepper. Pound these all together till smooth, then rub through a wire sieve. Cut some thin slices of bread, butter them well, and spread half of them with the prepared paste; sprinkle these over entirely with hard boiled yolk of egg that has been rubbed through a wire sieve; place on top of this another slice of the bread and butter, press them well together, and stamp out with a plain round cutter about one and a half inches in diameter, dish up on a dish paper, on a plate or sandwich tray. Garnish here and there round the dish with olives. Other filling, such as cheese, could be used. Fruits, jams and chopped nuts also make excellent sweet sandwiches.

Dear Miss Wise—Can you tell me any way to whiten and soften the elbows. Mine are brown and rough looking. With short sleeves they certainly do look bad. I am so anxious to get them to looking better so I will not be ashamed of them when I go out. Thanking you for your past advice and for this. EDNA.

Soak the elbows in the halves of grapefruit. When you can spare the time, let the elbows rest in the grapefruit to which has been added a little peroxide if desired. Use the skins after the fruit has been eaten for breakfast. However leave a little of the pulp in the skins as it and a little juice is necessary to bleach the elbows. After this treatment cocoa butter rubbed into them will be of great benefit. I am sure you will be very much pleased with the results of your efforts in a short time.

SOCIETY

The engagement of Miss Katherine Moeller, beautiful daughter of Mr. John Moeller, of Ninth street, and Mr. Charles W. Waldron, superintendent of sales agents of The Ery Register Company, of Dayton, Ohio, was recently announced at a beautiful party at the home of a relative of Miss Moeller in Danville, Ill. The Danville Commercial News has items of interest, as follows:

"Mrs. A. H. Davis entertained a company of twelve of her lady friends most charmingly at dinner Thursday noon at her home on East Main street. The event was given complimentary to Miss Katherine Moeller, of Portsmouth, O., cousin of the hostess, who is a guest at the Davis home. Bright-hued garden flowers were used in the attractive decorations of the table, while the place cards were tiny envelopes, on which the names of the guests were engraved. Placed in the envelopes were dainty cards with the names of Miss Moeller and Charles W. Waldron, of Dayton, O. The information on these tiny cards came as a complete surprise. Miss Moeller has visited in Danville every summer for years and the guests, who were her intimate friends made during her previous visits, were unprepared for the announcement. A number of pretty parties have been planned for Miss Moeller, to be given during her visit here in honor of her approaching marriage. Mrs. Glenn Anderson, of Wilmington, N. C., was an out-of-town guest at the dinner party."

"Mrs. A. H. Davis and sister, Miss Anna Tesch, entertained a company of ladies at their home on East Main street Monday afternoon, complimentary to their cousin, Miss Katherine Moeller, of Portsmouth, O., whose engagement to Charles W. Waldron, of Dayton, O., was announced at a dinner given by Mrs. Davis last Thursday. The affair of Monday was a card party, four tables being occupied by the guests, who played the game of five hundred. At the conclusion of the series the hostesses served a daintily appointed tea, a profusion of garden flowers being used as the decorations of the tea table. Among the guests was Mrs. Glenn Anderson, of Wilmington, N. C., formerly Miss Edith McIlroy, of this city."

Recent parties given for Miss Moeller and for another guest in Danville, Mrs. Glenn Anderson, of Wilmington, N. C., was a card party at the home of Mrs. Frank Hendricks, 323 Vermillion street, at luncheon at the "Shield Tea" room given by Mrs. A. W. Lucas and Mrs. James Danforth, a beautifully appointed six o'clock dinner, followed by cards at "The Holland," where Miss Marie McGowan was hostess; a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Walter Craft, on Jewel avenue; a motor party to Mudavia Springs, where they spent the day at Mudavia Bath Hotel, in honor of Miss Moeller. Miss Moeller has been spending the past three weeks with relatives in Danville, where she has been much feted.

Miss Miriam Crawford will entertain with a party Friday afternoon, honoring her cousin, Miss Mary Anderson, of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Frances Leonard, of Dayton, guest of Mrs. W. O. Feurt, on Scioto Trail.

Miss Katherine Steinman, of Cincinnati, will arrive Thursday to visit Miss Florence Dasher, Friday evening. Miss Dasher will entertain the K. K. K. in honor of her guest.

The Bigelow Methodist Woman's Home Missionary Society held the monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Runyan, on Glover street. The meeting was held a week earlier than usual on account of the regular day being on

Save Your Feet The Ideal Shoe For The Business Woman

It pays in the long run

Of all the women in the world, the women in business—the ones behind the counter, the nurses, and those on their feet in factories especially—should know and should wear the "ARCH PRESERVER" SHOE.

You owe it to yourselves, to your employers and to the boys and girls who some day you hope to call yours.

Nothing in the world—except severe illness or accidents—so quickly and surely destroys the arches of the feet as does standing in more or less fixed positions in shoes of ordinary construction.

The wages lost each year by the workmen in factories, stores and offices, etc., of the United States, on account of various disabling foot troubles, mainly broken arches or "flat-foot"—is estimated to be an amount large enough in the aggregate to buy all of the shoe factories in the country.

And the cruel part of the matter is that it has been quite conclusively demonstrated that practically all foot troubles with which people are afflicted can be traced, more or less directly to the shoes they wear.

Certain of the most serious troubles are due to the lack of proper strength in the shanks or arches of the shoes, even the strongest ones ever made—before the invention of the "ARCH PRESERVER" SHOE—have not been strong enough to maintain their shape through the life of the shoe. Other troubles are due to the almost universal defects in last modeling, while others are due to wrong fitting of the shoes.

The "ARCH PRESERVER" SHOE is different in so many important ways—in the modeling of the lasts, the construction of the "BRIDGE" in the shank of the shoe, and in the fitting features, that nothing we can put in an advertisement can give a proper idea of its wonderful advantages to the woman in business.

Come in and try on a shoe—get our circular about it—ask questions—study every point about it. We believe you will decide that you cannot afford to wear any other shoes.

There are other types of "ARCH PRESERVERS" for every purpose and every occasion, all containing the same indispensable features.

Fourth of July. There were forty present. Mrs. Arthur Willey gave an interesting talk on her trip to California and the mission schools she visited while there. The hostesses served dainty refreshments. Next month's meeting will be an outing at the Musser camp, on Brush creek, the first Tuesday in August.

Mrs. J. M. Graham was hostess at this afternoon's meeting of the Finch Club. Mrs. Frank Ambrose, of Columbus, guest of Mrs. R. B. Cunningham, was the only guest. The game was followed by excellent refreshments.

The First Presbyterial Woman's Missionary Society held the regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. L. Johnson, on Fifth street. There was a good attendance. Mrs. N. W. Evans, the president, led the devotion, "Work."

Mrs. Rebecca Micklethwait gave a reading on Alaska, and Miss Mary Peebles gave an interesting talk on her trip to South America.

Current Events were given by the members.

Meet Me At Nye's Fountain. 1211

Mesdames George Freund, J. S. Thomas and guest, Mrs. Charles W. Zell, of Newport, and Miss Bessie Moore dined at the Baker House in Wheelersburg yesterday at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Nagelisen delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Barbara Holman, of Seventh street, in honor of their little son Frederick's eighth birthday. The afternoon was happily whiled away with various games. Delicious refreshments of tea and cake were served at three o'clock, when ten of his little friends gathered at the table, which was prettily decorated with cut flowers and in the center was the birthday cake bearing the eight candles, one for each year of Master Frederick's life. The color scheme was pink and white. The favors were little balloons. Those present were Misses Anna McCarthy, Mary Isabel White, Mildred Schloss, Georgia Fisher, Evelyn Campbell, Master Dabney Russell, David McCarthy, Ralph and Richard Smith. The little folks departed at five o'clock, taking their little friend many happy returns of the day. Frederick was the recipient of many useful and pretty remembrances.

A party motored to McDermott, Sunday and were delightfully entertained at the Tatman home. They were the guests of Miss Mae Tatman. The party included Hattie Tatman, Grace Boyles, Grace Robinson, Mercedith Morrison and George Tatman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Beasley and son, Norris, have returned to their home in Amesville, O., after an extended visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. C. Lloyd Strecker. They were accompanied home by their grand-daughter, Mary Jane Strecker. Miss Ruth Crawford, of Ninth street, also left with the Amesville party. She will be the guest of Miss Letta Beasley, sister of Mrs. Strecker, for about a week.

Mrs. J. H. Simmens, of Peebles, is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Nixon, of Gallia and Offshore streets.

Mrs. Augusta Sappington, who is visiting Mrs. Marvin Clark, was entertained Monday at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Kaps and at dinner in the evening at the home of the Misses Sue and Sillie Reed. Mrs. Sappington will visit at the Clark home until July 3rd, when she will return to Chillieth.

Misses Mabel Wheeler and Addie Collis charmingly entertained the T. C. O. Club recently at their home on Scioto Trail as a farewell to Mr. Adolph Stone, who leaves soon for Minnesota, where he will make his future home. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses. The guest list follows: Misses Bessie Noel, Clara Wiget, Florence Woten, Mabel Wiget, Mabel Wheeler and Addie Collis; Messrs. Adolph Stone, Ray Woten, James George, Clarence Ray, Clarence Noel, Harvey and John Collis.

Mr. and Mrs. Brokenshire, of Jackson, motored to Portsmouth Tuesday, for a shopping visit. It was their first time in Portsmouth and to show them around they brought with them Mrs. Alvin McGinnis, of Hamden.

Miss Helen Hartinger, of Wheeling, W. Va., has issued invitations to a party on Friday afternoon for her guests, the Misses Dorothy and Lillian Freund, of Portsmouth, who are visiting at the Hartinger home.

A Sale of 25 New White Dresses at $7.50 to $20.00

Our New York office wired that a certain maker of fine dresses had a lot of twenty-five voile, organdie and net dresses which he would sell at once at a big reduction in price. The wire stated that the retail values were $12.50 to $35.00.

We advised to send them on. The dresses arrived this morning and were immediately placed on sale at $7.50 to $20.00.

They are exceptional values, every one of them, and will delight the hearts of just twenty-five customers, for there are only twenty-five dresses in the lot.

The styles are new and the trimmings are extremely dainty and in good taste. At the prices asked, this lot will not last long. To begin with we have sizes 14, 16, 18, 36, 38 and 40. Come early for choice.

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN

1380. A neat, convenient and practical model.

Ladies' Apron in sack or belted style.

Dotted blue and white percale was used in this instance with ragings of white. The style is good for seersucker, for gingham, lawn, pique, denim, drill, jean or alpaca. In belted style it may do service as a "slip on" house dress a style much favored for warm weather. The low neck and short sleeves are cool and neat and the skirt portions have sufficient fullness for grace and comfort. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: Small, Medium and Large. It requires 6 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for a Medium size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

POLLYANA MAKES VISIT TO BIG SHOE FACTORIES

Wednesday was the third day of the "Peerless Portsmouth" moving picture being produced by Director Mills Davidson under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. with Lena Allen as the leading woman and Ralph Marting as the leading man.

This morning the party started at 7 o'clock, taking a sweep of the town, much time being devoted to the picturesque residential sections. At 9:30 many views were taken at the big plant of the Whitaker-Glessner Company in New Boston.

At 10:30 this morning two exterior scenes were taken at the Selly shoe plant and similar scenes were taken at the Ex-celsius plant at 11:30. Several scenes were also taken at the Portsmouth Golf Club in East Portsmouth. One of the features was a "tennis match" which the camera man caught in full blast. Miss Allen, who is enacting the role of Pollyanna is performing her duties in a very clever manner, according to Producer Davidson. "She is making a most agreeable leading lady," the director said last night. Tickets for the picture are now on sale at the Columbia theatre and at the Y. W. C. A.

ABUSED HIS WIFE, BARTENDER FINED

Jim Bradshaw, a bartender, was placed in the inmate class by Mayor Kaps during police court Wednesday morning, and fined $25 as a reminder that "all persons look alike" to the present administration head.

Bradshaw had been arrested Tuesday afternoon upon complaint of his wife, Mrs. Neoma Bradshaw, for abusing and threatening to kill her. As his new position at Jos. Distel's saloon was at stake, an officer interceded for him and Mayor Kaps agreed to his release at 4 p. m., upon condition that he go to work and remain away from home until after his case had been disposed of in court Wednesday morning. Bradshaw instead went to the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Andy Leslie, of Fourth street, told her of his arrest, and proceeded to vilify his wife for having caused it. Mrs. Leslie, after telling him it was a matter between him and his wife, and for him to leave his wife if he felt thus disposed, served warning on him that she would tell him if he again cursed her sister in her presence. She told the court of how he boasted that Mayor Kaps would not dare fine him, he having voted for him, and that the police were afraid of him, he claiming that he furnished them liquor. He boasted that he could cause the whole force to be dismissed if he wanted to. Just as he left the house he encountered his wife, jerked an umbrella out of her hand and returned to the Leslie home with her and proceeded to abuse her. Mrs. Bradshaw corroborated her sister's testimony and added that when he left home he took two guns with him. Bradshaw interrupted her by remarking he had concealed them behind a kitchen cabinet. Mrs. Bradshaw related how he had repeatedly assaulted and threatened her, even in the presence of others.

The mayor told Bradshaw he was not interested in, or trying to meddle in his domestic troubles, that it was rather a policy of the present administration to keep family affairs from the public eye, but that he wanted him to understand that he had not treated him and the police officials squarely, acting as he had, after they had tried to befriend him. "I want you to understand that I'm not afraid to look up anyone in Portsmouth, so long as someone files an affidavit," continued the mayor with considerable warmth. He ordered Bradshaw committed until the fine was paid.

AGED CITIZEN OVERCOME BY HEAT

SCIOTOVILLE POSTOFFICE FOUND O. K.

Post Office Inspector Guy E. Newlon, of Cincinnati, made an inspection of the Sciotoville post-office Wednesday and found everything in first-class shape. He highly complimented the postmaster, George Russ, and his efficient help. It is the first time in two years the office has been visited by an inspector. The present force is being worked extra hard since the arrival of many newcomers in the village who are working on the C. & O. Northern line.

HAS ACCEPTED POSITION AT LEXINGTON, KY.

Miss Estia Will, financial secretary of the First Christian church, and who has been making her home with Rev. and Mrs. Charles R. Oakley, has resigned her position and at a meeting of the official board of the church held Tuesday evening, B. A. Leichner was unanimously chosen to fill the place. Miss Will will leave next week for Lexington, Ky., where she has been elected as financial secretary of the Broadway Christian church. Miss Will has endeared herself to every member of the church and Bible school and all are sorry to learn she is going away. That success may attend her is the sincere wish of all who know her.

On Trip

Will H. Schwartz has gone to West Virginia on a few days' trip, in the interest of the Schwartz Clothing Company.

Will Observe "Fourth"

Following their usual custom, the Whitaker-Glessner company's immense plant in New Boston will close down at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, July Fourth, and will resume Wednesday morning, July 5, at 8 o'clock. Christmas and Fourth of July are the only two holidays of the year the steel company observe.

Cement For Flood Wall

The S. Monroe & Son company on Wednesday received two carloads of steel for its flood wall extension work. The firm is daily expecting the arrival of its newly purchased steam shovel, and once it is on the ground rapid headway will be made on the job.

WANTS BOARDER ARRESTED

Mrs. K. J. Harrison, of Front street, swore out a warrant in the mayor's court Wednesday afternoon for the arrest of a boarder, Sam C. Brinkley, charging him with embezzling $18. She claimed to have given him the money to pay a bill she owed Dr. J. J. Rardin for that amount, and that instead he skipped out.

BRUSH TEETH CORRECTLY

The right way to brush the teeth is to hold the bristles upright. In this way the crevices, as well as the surfaces are thoroughly cleansed, provided a few drops of hychlorite in a glass of water are used. Particles of food which invite germs and microbes get into the tiny crevices. Hychlorite reaches every crevice, kills the germs and makes the mouth and breath sweet and clean. You surely must use hychlorite and avoid decay of teeth. Rinse and gargle with this very satisfying and effective mouth wash and you will escape throat troubles and other germ diseases. Dentists are urging the use of hychlorite because it is such a pure, safe and remarkably effective antiseptic. It cools and soothes, cleanses and heals and is very economical. Hychlorite can be obtained from any druggist. General Laboratories, Madison, Wis.

SUGGESTIONS TO SICK WOMEN

How Many Are Restored To Health.

First.—Almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second.—The medicine most successful in relieving female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates and strengthens the organism; it overcomes disease.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Third.—The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Fourth.—Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

The second day of the campaign to raise sufficient funds to reopen the play grounds at York Place, was almost as successful as the opening day. Almost $100 was collected Tuesday, bringing the total to $216.10. The Boy Scouts who are making a canvas of the city, are being cordially received on every hand, and judging by the way the project is moving, but little trouble will be experienced in raising the necessary amount.

If the boys have failed to call on you and you are willing to give a dollar, telephone Mrs. C. E. Rowe, 1058-L, and a Boy Scout will call on you. Mrs. Rowe stated to The Times Wednesday that the Boy Scouts were doing splendid work. The little fellows, she says are heart and soul in the movement and their enthusiasm has done much toward making the campaign a success.

TO START WORK ON NEW BLAST FURNACE

It was officially announced Wednesday by the Whitaker-Glessner Company that work on the new blast furnace, to be built in what was known as the Idlewild Addition would begin the first of next week.

A contract for putting down the foundation has been awarded to Sheridan and Kirk of this city and they will start work Monday. Between 20,000 and 30,000 cubic yards of cement will go into the foundation. The William Pollock Company of Youngstown have been awarded the contract to do the plate and casting work and the turbo blowers will be installed by The Lugsoll and Rand Company of Pittsburgh.

The furnace is to cost more than $1,000,000 and will have a daily capacity of 500,000 tons.

OBITUARY

Arthur W. Wilson

Arthur W. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, of 1116 Twelfth street, died at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, complications resulting in the child's death. The body was Wednesday shipped to Pebley, where the interment will take place.

Richard Bell

Richard Bell, five-year-old son of Pearl and Carrie Bell, of 1120 Twelfth street, died at 8:30 o'clock

Tuesday evening. The child had been ill for sometime with complications. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and interment will be in Greenlawn.

John B. Andris.

The West End mourns the loss of one of its oldest and most beloved citizens in the death of John B. Andris, aged 71 years, who peacefully passed away at the family home, 216 Jefferson street, Wednesday morning at 4:55 o'clock.

Though he had been failing in health for the past several years, suffering with Bright's disease, Mr. Andris had been bedfast only four weeks. His eye sight failed him almost completely about a year ago and caused him to give up his last employment which was at the Selby shoe factory.

Mr. Andris was born in Freiburg, Germany, and came to America at the age of 23 years. He came directly to Portsmouth and had been a resident of this city ever since, living practically a half century in the same house at the above address.

Mr. Andris was for years a merchant policeman and private watchman of the First National bank when it was located in the Massie block. In later years he followed shoe factory work. He was an industrious, honest and upright citizen and his jovial nature under any and all circumstances won for him many friends who regret to learn of his passing away.

Mr. Andris was married in 1875 to Ottilia Wentzler, who survives him with five children: Will Andris and Mrs. Louise Friel, wife of W. J. Friel, of this city; Mark F. and Joseph J. Andris, of Cincinnati, and Miss Mary C. Andris, a trained nurse of Columbus. He was one of the charter members of the St. Peter's Benevolent Society of St. Mary's church and also the Germania fire company, being one of the old guard of Portsmouth's volunteer fire fighters.

The funeral will take place from St. Mary's church probably Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

World's Dignitaries To Be Invited To The Karnival

Fourth Annual Affair Gets Big Boost At Committee Meeting

During the fourth annual Korn Karnival in Portsmouth, the last week in September, the latch string of the Peerless City will be hanging out to all the foreign and domestic diplomats of the world. Every king, every queen, every czar, every emperor, every president and every governor throughout the entire world will be extended a hearty invitation to be the guest of Portsmouth during the celebration of the Karnival.

To extend an invitation to the rulers of the earth was decided at an enthusiastic meeting of the advertising committee held at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday, said meeting being presided over by the chairman, E. C. "Jack" Hood. This meeting, which was well attended and which was genuinely enthusiastic, marked the beginning for preparedness so far as the coming Korn Karnival is concerned. Enough plans were started at this meeting, which if carried out will result in the Karnival being so well advertised that practically every right minded citizen in the country will know the Karnival is going to be the biggest, best and most successful of them all.

Chairman Hood corralled his committee shortly after nine o'clock, and for one solid hour there was plenty of action. Each member of the committee displayed unbounded interest in the big event and all pledged themselves to work untiringly to make the Karnival fairly howl with success.

Orin B. Oakes was named temporary secretary, a position he filled so well that there is little question but he will have a permanent job. The following members were present: E. C. Hood, Henry Winter, F. W. Sheridan, R. H. Charlton, Orin B. Oakes, J. George Wurster and St. Straus, the latter getting in from his country estate a little late but full of "pep" and hopefulness.

The first matter taken up was the naming of a committee to arrange for out of town trips. The chairman named R. H. Charlton and Henry Winter, and these two gentlemen expect to perfect plans that will let every man, woman and child in Scioto county know that the Karnival is going to be a "bumdinger." The following places will be visited by the Korn Karnival Kohorts: Chillicothe, Wheelersburg, Ironton, Lucas-

Horse Dashes Into Auto; Machine Badly Damaged

A peculiar accident recently took place in front of Mrs. V. S. Holmes' farm, near Effort.

Rev. C. L. Dick, pastor of the South Webster Methodist church, was out for a little ride in his automobile with his family, and as they neared the Holmes farm, according to his story, a loose horse belonging to Mrs. Holmes dashed at full speed into his machine, smashing the front in. None of the occupants of the car was injured by the collision. The horse escaped with a few cuts.

Presumably, the horse became frightened at the glare of the headlights.

The windshield, the headlights and the radiator were damaged.

VICTIM IS BETTER

Edward Hammond, resident of Firebrick, Ky., who last Saturday night received a fractured skull in a free-for-all fight, in which six persons took part, has taken a change for the better, and it is now believed that he will recover.

He is conscious most of the time and his general condition was better today. Vanceburg officials are looking into the trouble that led to Hammond receiving a fractured skull. It is claimed that someone hit Hammond over the head with a chair.

Another Automobile Stolen Last Night, Found In The City

When Charles Horr was attending a directors' meeting of the Ohio Valley Bank, Tuesday evening, unknown parties deliberately climbed into his new Studebaker machine and drove off with it. It was not found until 11 o'clock, a vigorous search resulting in the machine being located on Campbell avenue, near the Harrison-Walker brick plant, in the East End. It was not damaged and was evidently appropriated by "joy-riders," who after enjoying a spin around the city with immunity, left the car anchored on Campbell avenue.

Auto thieves must have designs on machines owned in the Horr family, as just a week ago last Sunday they stole Will Horr's Ford machine and no trace of it has ever been found. This machine was stolen from in front of Bigelow M. E. church.

Abandoning all hope of finding the car, Mr. Horr, accompanied by Mrs. Horr, left last week for their home in Tucumcari, N. M. Mr. Horr is a brother of Charles Horr.

It was 7:30 o'clock last night when Charles Horr drove up to the Ohio Valley bank and parked his machine on the Sixth street side of the bank. At the close of the directors' meeting at 9 o'clock Mr.

Horr started after his machine, only to find it missing. A searching party was formed after the police had been notified. A trip was made to the ferryboat landings to get a trace of the machine, but they were fruitless trips. At 11 o'clock a machine was seen near the Harrison-Walker brick plant with all the lights turned out. At a glance Mr. Horr recognized the car as his. It was not damaged in the least and was soon driven to the Horr garage.

Mr. Horr stated today he would pay a liberal reward to any one giving information that would result in the apprehension of the parties who so boldly stole his car.

JAIL DELIVERY AT IRONTON: FIVE PRISONERS GET FREEDOM

Ironton, O., June 28.—Lawrence Co. was furnished some time Tuesday with a jail delivery. For ten years the people of the county have rested contentedly with the idea that they had a jail which would hold all inmates, regardless of anything. But they now realize their mistake.

The escaped prisoners are Sol

Larger, Louis Young and Paul

Webb, charged with non-support, and John Rowe and Robert Johnson, charged with highway robbery.

The delivery was not discovered until breakfast was served.

In some way the prisoners unlocked the doors leading from the cells to the corridor.

Rebel Leaders And Supporters Flocking To Carranza Standard

El Paso, Texas, June 28.—Fresh cause for apprehension was found along the border today in news of the gathering of strong forces of former Villa sympathizers under notorious chieftains in the vicinity of Juarez and the close surveillance by the civil and military authorities on former adherents, who are now refugees in El Paso.

General Jose Flores, commanding 800 infantry men, is reported in Juarez making peace with the defacto government. General Manuel Randa, once a Villa subordinate known to be across the Rio Grande, and Manuel Medinavilla and Jose Ysabel Robles, also, have taken advantage of the amnesty granted by Carranza. Still another former Villa leader, Colonel Maximo Castillo, has joined General Gonzales' garrison in Juarez. Castillo, who has been blamed for the dynamiting of the Cuernavaca tunnel in February, 1915, in which 25 Americans and 50 Mexicans lost their lives, recently returned to Mexico via Vera Cruz, from Cuba, where he went after being released from custody after the Cuernavaca crime.

The bandit raid near Hachita, which resulted in the murder of William Barker and his bride, still was a subject of speculation today in connection with the presence of the former Villa followers in Juarez and the apparent lack of protection afforded the border from bandit raids. Their probable activities in the event of hostilities gave rise to numerous alarmist theories.

Although the embargo of munitions still is enforced rigidly at points of entry, that regarding food is not. Several wagon-loads of foodstuffs held up at the international bridges were released today after the consigners received permission from Washington to send them across, in response to protests against detention of the goods. That the food shortage is becoming more acute in the interior of Mexico was declared by arrivals from the south, who told of bread lines in Chihuahua City, Durango and Torreon, and brought pictures to substantiate their statements.

Mexican refugees who reached the border today from the mining districts of Southern Chihuahua brought stories of the organization of "dynamite squads" in General Trevino's army. They said it is planned that, should it become apparent in the event of war that the defacto troops could not hold the railroads to destroy them and the detachments now stationed along the Mexican Central and the Mexican Northwestern will be concentrated at Chihuahua City. Bombs and hand grenades, it was said, were being made by plugging the ends of small pipes after filling them with powder, nails and scrap-iron.

Arrival of the first national guardsmen is being awaited with interest. Arrangements virtually have been completed for their camp sites, provisioning and drilling by regular army officers.

CARRANZA MUST RELEASE U. S. TROOPS AT ONCE OR FIGHT

Crucial Hour At Hand; Wilson May Ask Congress Tomorrow To Use Force To Rescue American Prisoners

Washington, June 28—Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City in a brief telegram dated yesterday and received at the state department early today, said he expected to be handed today Carranza's reply to the American note demanding the release of soldiers taken prisoners at Carrizal. The message, containing but two sentences, was the first word the department had heard from Mr. Rodgers since he reported the delivery of the note. It said it was believed Mexican authorities were investigating the Carrizal affair but gave no indication of what would be the reply to the American demands.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—This was regarded by Washington officials as the crucial day in negotiations with Mexico. It was probably the last day allowed General Carranza in which to comply with the United States' demand for release of 23 troopers held as prisoners at Chihuahua City. If his reply, either by act or in a communication, does not arrive by night or if it is unsatisfactory, President Wilson is determined to go before Congress, probably tomorrow, and ask authority to rescue the prisoners by force.

Unofficial reports stated that General Carranza's reply was on its way to Washington, having been dispatched from Mexico City last night. Officials had no intimation of its nature. The state department telegraph room was watched closely by administration officials for the note which may have been transmitted by Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City. The Mexican embassy also was the object of special interest on the chance that the note may have been sent to Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate to be delivered by him. Indications were that Congress would comply with President Wilson's request, in case he should find it necessary to send an armed expedition against Chihuahua. Only incidental consideration was given by the state department today to Mr. Arredondo's communication sent late yesterday asking that thirty Mexican civilians, whom he said had been arrested in California and Arizona, be released, and complaining against the unofficial embargo against shipment of foodstuffs and merchandise across the boundary into Mexico. All questions, including that of possible mediation, were regarded as subsidiary to that of the freeing of the American troopers at Chihuahua. Officials were gratified to learn by a report of the British consul in that city that the prisoners were being well treated and that only two were slightly wounded.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFEREES ARE DEADLOCKED ON WAR MEASURE

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Final action by Congress on the May resolution to empower the president to draft national guardsmen into the federal service was being delayed today by failure of senate and house conferees to agree on the much-discussed provision appropriating $1,000,000 for the relief of dependent families of guardsmen. There was no disagreement, however, over the main feature of the resolution providing for drafting of guardsmen and the provision to permit consolidation of scattered units of the national guard. Army officers are more anxious for immediate action on the latter provision, since without the authority it would give, they believe, the work of getting guardsmen to the border is being delayed. Prospects today were that the difficulty might be solved by the relief proposal being taken care of in a separate measure.

CLASH BETWEEN AMERICANS AND MEXICANS, REPORT

Mexico City, June 28.—There has been a clash between Mexicans and Americans in northern Sonora, according to a report received from Brigadier General Calles, military governor of Sonora. No details were given. Later advices say that two Americans, J. T. Harken and A. P. Dickson, were killed at Agua Prieta and that another American, Morton Hadden, was arrested.

T. R. TO OFFER DIVISION FOR MEXICAN WAR

New York, June 28.—Theodore Roosevelt is preparing to offer a division of approximately 12,000 men to the United States Government, accompanied by his application for a commission as major general, in the event of war with Mexico, and a call by the president for volunteers, it was learned here tonight from authoritative sources. Elaborate plans have been made quietly to recruit the or-

CASEMENT TO TAKE THE STAND IN OWN BEHALF

London, June 28.—Dramatic developments are expected at today's session of the trial of Sir Roger Casement, for high treason. Chief among these is a statement on his own defense which Sir Roger is prepared to make from the dock. Francis P. Doyle, the Philadelphia attorney, who is acting as counsel for Casement, informed the Associated Press, before the opening of court, that no witnesses would be called for the defense, but that the arguments of counsel would be supplemented by a statement from the prisoner. As was indicated yesterday, the main defense will rest on the argument of counsel for the quashing of the indictment on the ground of lack of jurisdiction. In reference to the decision of Casement's counsel not to call any witness, Mr. Doyle said: "Inasmuch as this trial affects not only the life of Sir Roger Casement, but also the aspirations of the Irish nation, it has been deemed advisable not to call any witnesses in this country, and that it would have been necessary to go to Germany for them, but that the government would not permit it."

OHIO GUARDSMEN MAY MOVE TOWARD CAMP TOMORROW

Columbus, O., June 28.—The long delayed movement of the Ohio National Guard to the mobilization camp here is expected to begin tomorrow. Officers of the guard are expecting supplies to arrive today which will complete the equipment necessary before mobilization can begin. The camp is in readiness for at least one regiment and will be put in shape for two additional regiments each successive day. The equipment which is lacking is said to include clothing, blankets and tents. This stuff is being sent from the government supply depot at St. Louis, Missouri. A shipment of ordnance from the Rock Island, Illinois, arsenal is also expected today. If the two shipments arrive during the day orders will probably go out tonight to the Eighth Regiment, Colonel Edward Vollrath, Bucyrus, commanding, to entrain at once for Columbus.

ENEMY FORCE MENACING PERSHING'S COLUMNS

Columbus, N. M., June 28.—Large forces of Carranza cavalry are being concentrated a short distance east of General Pershing's line of communication between Colonia Dublan and El Valle, according to reports brought here today by army motor truck men. The truck men assert that the American expeditionary commander is drilling his men regularly and is sparing no effort to make his force as mobile as possible. A large number of empty motor cars are being kept in readiness at field headquarters for rapid transportation of infantry. It is explained that this is being done because of reports

British Headquarters in France, June 27, Via London June 28.—British guns continued today the bombardment over a broad front which was begun yesterday. The Associated Press correspondent, riding seventy miles behind the lines, found the same regular pounding of positions on both days, whether in the Somme region or along the Vimy ridge. Going to a point on high ground which allowed a broad sweep of vision in a rolling country or forward to observation posts in the trenches, the correspondent found the horizon always bounded by shell bursts. There might be a lull at one point for awhile, but soon the inferno in that direction was renewed. Under cover of the bombardment the British made numerous trench raids last night, bringing in groups of prisoners. The British released gas at certain points, but discontinued this when the weather was found to be unfavorable.

MEXICANS ARE HELD AS PRISONERS

El Paso, Texas, June 28.—Between 30 and 40 Mexican prisoners were taken into the American camp at Colonia Dublan on Monday afternoon, in motor trucks, according to a rancher who arrived here today and who said the trucks came from the direction of Carrizal. He believed a skirmish had taken place on the Santa Maria river, about fifty miles from Colonia Dublan. Military authorities here said they had heard nothing of an engagement between American and Mexican forces along the Rio Santa Maria. It was pointed out, that a column of the Eleventh cavalry has been scouring that district in search of survivors of the Carrizal battle. Consensus of opinion was that the captives may have been stragglers from the various Mexican commands who had been picked up by the cavalry column.

CONNECTICUT TROOPS ARE EN ROUTE TO THE BORDER

Niantic, Conn., June 28.—All the Connecticut troops ordered to the Mexican border were moving south with the exception of troop A cavalry, which remains in camp for the present because of the lack of equipment. The last contingents left early today.

FORMER SCHOOL COMMISSIONER DEAD Indianapolis, Ind., June 28.—Louis Davis Bonebrake, 57, former president of the Indiana Central University, and at one time state commissioner of schools of Ohio, died at his home last night.

SENTRY SQUAD AND MEXICAN EXCHANGE SHOTS ON THE BORDER

Nogales, Ariz., June 28.—Shots were exchanged shortly before midnight last night between a sentry squad on the west side of town and a detachment of Mexican soldiers. The corporal in charge of the post reported that he challenged the Mexicans, that they continued to advance without replying, and that after they were well over the line, they fired a shot at him. He then ordered his squad to fire, retreating to a point 150 yards north of the line to prevent being flanked. The Mexicans retreated. When reserve companies of infantry were rushed to the line, the Mexican border guard opposite withdrew into the Mexican town. About 20 shots were fired by the United States troops. A Mexican officer then rode up to the customs house and said his men had been fired on while they were on their side. Major William Brooke, officer of the guard, said every sentry was posted well back of the line. No casualties were reported by the Mexicans. Later, the reserve troops were withdrawn. At a conference at the line with Major Brooke, the Mexican commandant, General Oren Garay, promised a rigid investigation and severe penalties for any of his men found guilty.

THE DOUBLE ACTION ROD

Not long ago a friend out in Illinois enthusiastically solicited our venture in oil lands. No he didn't solicit either, he sent us a hurrah call to jump right in and get a goodly share of the millions in it. But our ears were deaf and the small pile we had accumulated remains intact—we haven't just had the time yet to spend it—and we now realize we made the mistake of our life, which kind friends say has been filled with 'em in a financial way. We realize this because our friend told us he had located the acres underflowing with sufficient oil to bring the price of gasoline down from one to three cents by a diving rod, a first cousin to the witch hazel that finds water where there ain't none. Don't laugh at that, it is so. We know it because the Germans say it is, and since the war began we have learned that German genius knows everything and then a great deal more besides. The Germans know the power of the diving rod because they have been using it in the arid wastes beyond the Nile and over the shining sand deserts of Arabia, using it and discovering water where for forty centuries none had known to flow or stand within a thousand miles away or ten hundred below. There can't be any doubt about it because the wells, filled with cool limpid water are there as the gracious and risible proof of what the diving rod pointed the way down to.

Hence we missed our opportunity of being a millionaire oil magnate. For does it not follow that if the witch hazel, which digging up some forgotten lore, the Germans found would wiggle and wobble whenever it was held over an underground pool of water, there is another sort of rod that would reveal the hidden riches of oil, which is another sort of moisture.

SOME COUNTRY THIS

The head of the automobile manufacturers' board of commerce notifies the government that the factory members of his association are prepared to furnish the government all its need in their line up to 900 trucks a day and 1,000 automobiles.

Anywhere else than in America that would be taken as a vain boast, but here it will excite only some surprise, not a bit of incredulity, though credulity is strained a trifle when this notice is accompanied by the announcement that all these cars can and will be furnished, if necessary, without curtailing the supply to individual buyers.

And is it any wonder we are proud of the flag of such a country and where a week ago, with less than eighty thousand men under arms, we are today quite ready to send a half million to the front and are jauntily talking about an army of three million as though it were but a few.

The Dayton Journal is starting a campaign to beautify roadways. That is all well enough, in time, but the time isn't until you have the roadways of the right sort.

These do not seem to be particularly felicitous times for the candidate. No boy shows interest in his story, with all being so busy and other interesting things to attract.

It is going to be our boys for awhile anyway, because the government doesn't want married men and heads of families.

After all is said it does not appear possible we can have any worse opinion of the greasers than they have of the gringos.

It is agreed with the New Hampshire Portsmouth Times that the Blue Carpathian Mountains must be looking mighty blue to the Austrians about this hour.

A vivid imagination, possibly has more to do with the accusation that Germany is backing up Mexico's bumptiousness than has the fact.

We came mighty near letting it go by, but still we'll tell you, that right now is the time to stand for a safe and sane Fourth. Another reason for sparing the powder is we might need it in the impending brush with Mexico.

We hardly accuse the French and Germans of being Indians, but the way they are giving and taking back trenches from each other reminds us of the proverbial Redskin giver.

We wouldn't be surprised if Carranza has some hint of what it means to be between the devil and the deep blue sea when he reads that latest note from Washington.

The Bull Moose party is too dead to skin. The wonder is, nevertheless, that it is so completely done for what ever it was begun for.

The government will not accept for service the individual, whose instep lies straight along the ground. We bald-headed dignitaries protest against having the flat-foots placed in the same class with us.

It will hardly be necessary to rob the cradle, but the hefty youth of fifteen springs can enlist, provided his parents say the word.

We thought for a long time it wasn't going to be much of a campaign, but in the past few days we have changed our minds as the signs begin to multiply it is going to wind up as a sizzler.

EDITORIAL TRAVEL NOTE

(W. G. Sibley in Gallipolis Tribune)

Arriving at Columbus I dropped in to see "Sweet Kitty Bellairs" at a moving picture show. While absorbed in the play a woman sat down beside me and made unmistakable signs of wishing to attract my attention. "What, ho!" thought I. "Here's a good judge of nature, manly pulchritude, or perchance some lone damsel seeking sound counsel, who has been attracted by an intelligent and open countenance. I'll risk a squint at her!" So I turned in the dim light, and behold, it was a Gallipolis lady friend now living in Columbus. You may guess who she was. I am not going to embarrass her by telling. She declined my cordial invitation to dinner, ostensibly because she was not flossied up, but probably because she knows I travel on a very light pocket book.

Rolla Clymer says she's a slow sister who won't flirt a little when the train is pulling out.—Kansas City Star.

Might just as well surrender without further parley. The platitudes of the two parties are sufficient to show fair woman is going to have her way, and that though only a small part of her wants it.

Funny thing this English language. Vision and sight are synonyms. But while you can make a hit with a woman by telling her she is a vision, you are likely to get a hit from her if you say she is a sight.

The Houston Post says T. R.'s announcement that he is out of politics is surplusage, because the G. O. P. convention knocked all the politics out of him. However, it overlooks the opportunity to sneak in by the back door.

We don't pose as a military expert, but, as we figure it, the success of the Russians on the eastern front merely shows victory will come to the side that can hold out the longest against financial exhaustion.

We guess it is true we are set on as proud of the things we have done as those we are going to do, and don't.

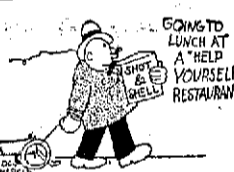

Down in these parts the flood wall extension is so far but a heap of sand and other material, but it looks mighty good at that.

Old Jupe must be having a terrible amount of trouble, judging by the frequent and profuse tears he sheds over the whole lund.

NERVOUS RESTAURANTS

There has sprung up within the last few years a type of chaotic cafe in which you can save a dime, possibly fifteen cents, on a meal, and in so doing subtract a week or ten days from the total of your life. Primal conditions of food gathering are restored in these restaurants. The law of the survival of the fittest is revived. Thousands of fall under foot in these restaurants every day in the struggle for loaf sugar and ice-cream sandwiches. These cafes are sending wagonloads of neurotics to the hospitals.

You can hear their clatter for three blocks. Sometimes you can hear two of these restaurants at once, in which case it is almost deafening. Since the clatter of these restaurants has been added to the rattle of street cars it is pretty hard to endure the cities.

These restaurants ought to pad their chinaware. This would be expensive, but they could raise the price of a dish of spinach a fraction of a cent, and the average increase of human life in our cities would justify the measure. (Or they could serve a little less spinach. What is one aprig of spinach more or less?)

(Projected by George Matthew Adams)

If many more buzz wagons are introduced into these parts the roads will have to be widened or else permits issued for a certain number to run on certain days and other certain numbers to run on other fixed days.

The Cheerful Dandelion

TWO LITTLE DANDELIONS grew side by side in a great big yard and they looked as much alike as two peas. But they were not a bit alike in anything but their looks, as you shall soon see.

One was very bright and happy, so happy and cheerful that his friends had nicknamed him Sun; and the other was very sad and mournful and whistled, so much so that his friends, what few he had, nicknamed him Gloom. But he didn't care about nicknames, he was too busy counting his troubles to care what they said.

"Oh, dear," said he sadly, "such a dreadful wind as we are having today! I can hardly hold my head up at all!"

"Then lie down, as I do," laughed Sun, good-naturedly. "It's fun to bend your head and let the wind blow over."

But Gloom didn't think so—he fretted about the wind all the day. The next morning the sun shone hot and fierce.

"Oh, dear," sighed Gloom; "I'll not fast through the day at this rate! Did you ever feel anything so awful as this sun?"

"Pretty hot," agreed Sun; "but think of the blossoms it brings out and the fields of corn!"

"I won't think of them," retorted Gloom. "What do I care about them? I'm thinking about myself. I'm so hot now I can hardly hold my petals open. In an hour they'll be all closed up and then my life will be over. Oh, dear! Oh, dear! Oh, dear, dear, dear!"

Now Sun was hot too, just as hot as Gloom was. But he didn't fret about it, he knew very well that soon his petals would be closed, so he had a good time while he could. He stretched out his yellow petals just as wide as ever he could and he called to all his friends, the sunbeams and breezes and grasses.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-MINTYRE.

New York, June 28—"And who are you?"

"Nick Carter!"

"Not the famous government detective?"

"The same!"

"Hands flew up. Wild cries rang out for the game was up."

No more will New York boys read such stirring stuff for Nick Carter is dead. He was killed by the fillum.

S' death! The movies have done their foul work. Frank Morriswell and Diamond Dick have also been wiped out by the relentless movie.

There are only two publishers in New York who continue to publish nickel novels today. Most of them come from the house of Frank Tinsley. They do not deal with the red corpsed heroes of old, however.

They have all gone out into the pale night—just as they throw the villains over cliffs in the long ago.

The creator of Frank Reade and other nickel novel heroes now writes insipid moving picture stories. But it was out of the dreadful stuff that he made a fortune big enough to permit him to own several cars, a home on the Hudson and other nice little things like that.

When Copeland Townsend started a movement for a "Roosevelt for Secretary of State League," he was just a mere admirer of Col. Roosevelt as many other citizens are. He had never dabbled in politics and did not know he was playing with the forked end of lightning, so to speak.

Well, anyway the newspaper boys got on to it and began interviewing him and the New York newspapers were filled with stories of the plan—and incidentally two of them chimed it as their own idea.

In the meantime Mr. Townsend found himself deluged with telegrams, letters and phone calls. He was visited by this delegation and that delegation, and finally had to flee to his country home to escape for a few days. In the interim the movement had gained national impetus and the originator is being hounded to drop his other business.

Freake of Stammering.

Stammering, like other ailments, has its freakish ways. A correspondent recalls the worst stammerer in his school, who was also—now what do you think?—the best soloist in the choir. His unlady allowed him to sing what he could only speak with difficulty. And a harassed master, aware of the fact, would take advantage of it as a last resource, so that a delighted class and its Latin grammar in B sharp when it came to the stammerer's turn to be questioned.—London Chronicle.

It so happened that the writer was forced to ride down Broadway in a surface car at the early hour of 6 o'clock the other morning. Men and women in evening clothes were going into dauntless and eufes for their last fox-trot and a bite of breakfast before retiring for the day.

Nothing new but the deep shadow of war.

But in New York night life has waxed, grown rotund. Exiles of all the capitals are here trying hard to worry through the nights of banishment with something akin to the doings of other days.

The Old Harpsichord

Into an attic, dim and gray, Filled with the wrecks of long ago. From hidden nook to rafters low, Alone, I stole one rainy day.

And while the tinkling shingles shed The unseen raindrops overhead, With yellowed keys and shrunken board,

I found an ancient harpsichord.

In careless heap, beneath it cast With tattered, dog-eared covers torn, And leaves with loving fingers worn, Was music of a day long past.

Only the spider traced the dust, Flecked with the thick of gathering must.

Long silenced were the rambling keys From half-forgotten melodies.

I listened to the raindrops beat In rhythmic note. About the eaves I heard the rustle of the leaves.

The whisper of the wind was sweet, And then, from out the deepest gloom, Ghosts stole into the quiet room, And gentle ghostly fingers bent Upon the ghostly instrument.

'Twas but the measure of the rain, That wove the echoes sweet to me; The visions that there seemed to be Were but the shadows on the pane;

As when the breath of some perfume Steals, wraith-like, from a long-closed room,

And with its scent brings back once more The dreams of days and friends of yore.

World's Dignitaries To Be Invited To The Karnival

Fourth Annual Affair Gets Big Boost At Committee Meeting

During the fourth annual Fern Karnival in Portsmouth, the last week in September, the last string of the Peeries City will be hanging out to all the foreign and domestic diplomats of the world. Every king, every queen, every czar, every emperor, every president and every governor throughout the entire world will be extended a hearty invitation to be the guest of Portsmouth during the celebration of the Karnival.

To extend an invitation to the rulers of the earth was decided at an enthusiastic meeting of the advertising committee held at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday, said meeting being presided over by the chairman, E. C. "Jack" Hood. This meeting, which was well attended and which was genuinely enthusiastic, marked the beginning for preparedness so far as the coming Korn Karnival is concerned. Enough plans were started at this meeting, which if carried out will result in the Karnival being so well advertised that practically every right-minded citizen in the country will know the Karnival is going to be the biggest, best and most successful of them all.

Chairman Hood corralled his committee shortly after nine o'clock, and for one solid hour there was plenty of action. Each member of the committee displayed unbounded interest in the big event and all pledged themselves to work untiringly to make the Karnival fairly howl with success.

Orin B. Oakes was named temporary secretary, a position he filled so well that there is little question but he will have a permanent job. The following members were present: E. C. Hood, Henry Winter, F. W. Sheridan, R. H. Charlton, Orin B. Oakes, J. George Wurster and St. Straus, the latter getting in from his country estate a little late but full of "pep" and hopefulness.

The first matter taken up was the naming of a committee to arrange for out of town trips. The chairman named R. H. Charlton and Henry Winter, and these two gentlemen expect to perfect plans that will let every man, woman and child in Scioto county know that the Karnival is going to be a "humdinger." The following places will be visited by the Korn Karnival Kohorts: Chillicothe, Wheelersburg, Ironton, Lucas, ville, Harrisonville and Friendship. It is planned to have not less than 200 boosters on each of these trips. A regular company will be recruited and each member will be asked to garb himself in some costume that in itself will be an advertisement. When any grange picnic is visited, a challenge to play a game of ball against the Korn Karnival will be issued. This committee will report within ten days.

In order to thoroughly advertise the Karnival to the people throughout the country, a committee consisting of Messrs. Hood and Sheridan was named to arrange for the unfurling of banners at every cross road. In order to make the banners have the necessary "punch" the committee decided to offer a prize of five dollars in gold to the person sending to Ralph Thomas, secretary of the Merchants' Association the most suitable slogan. Said slogan must not contain more than five words and must be in the hands of Secretary Thomas by Wednesday night, July 5. Get busy now, and win the prize for the best slogan, which will be used on all advertising matter during the preparation for the big Karnival.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Hood and Oakes was named to extend invitations to all the dignitaries of the world to attend the Karnival. The committee has high hopes that quite a number of them will be accepted. It is not likely, however, that Carranza or Kaiser William or Czar Nicholas will accept, their time being taken up with something a little more strenuous than a Portsmouth Korn Karnival.

The committee adjourned to meet on Thursday morning, July 6 at 8 o'clock.

GERMANS ATTEMPT TO TAKE FLEURY

Paris, June 28.—German troops last night delivered another attack on the French positions near Fleury on the sector of the Verdun front over which violent fighting has been in progress for several days. The assault was checked by the French fire, the war office announced today.

AMERICAN PRISONERS WELL TREATED

Washington, June 28.—The British consulate at Chihuahua City, who is looking after American interests there reported to the state department today that the American prisoners captured at Carrizal had been interned in the Chihuahua prison and were being well treated. He gave the number as twenty-three, two of them sergeants and the others privates. Two are slightly wounded.

The consul's message which was the first report regarding the prisoners to reach the department from him, also noted the detention of the Mormon interpreter, taken with the cavalrymen.

SECURE JURY IN JORDAN TRIAL; TESTIMONY IS NOW BEING HEARD

After examining ninety-five talesmen a jury was secured in the local common pleas court Tuesday afternoon at 5:05 to hear the case of the state against Roy Jordan, charged with murder in the first degree. The jury comprises Joseph B. Craigville, decedent, 1414 Lincoln street; Joseph L. Kuntz, clerk, 236 Second street; John Wurster, druggist, 1407 Sixth street; J. J. Brushart, grocer, 423 Waller street; Harry H. Anderson, druggist, 1423 Grandview avenue; Lawrence N. Allard, student, Seatonville; Earl T. Adams, mapmaker, 1129 Second street; W. W. Anderson, merchant, 451 Brown street; John Warheit, retired, Sixth street; Lem Odle, contractor; William N. Gableman, manager Play House, 1621 Robinson avenue and Gustav H. Heinsch, retired, 1611 Fifth street.

The defense dismissed thirteen on pre-emptory challenges and the state one. Those dismissed by the defense were: V. S. Vandervort, William Williams, Lewis W. Baker, Charles W. Hill, Milton H. Shumway, Robert Lanter, Phil M. Streich, William Dalton, Samuel Wise, John Wente, Albert Brunner, Frank L. Marling and Robert Baker. The state dismissed John Bishop.

Two hours before court convened Wednesday morning the room was filled with spectators. It was sort of a cosmopolitan audience with mainly women and children occupying one side and men the other.

Roy Jordan, the accused, in custody of Sheriff E. W. Smith came into the room five minutes before the time for court to convene. He drew his chair close to his counsel and held a short consultation.

An audible murmur broke over and rumbled through the ranks of the spectators when Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait stepped in and placed a bundle upon his desk. The package contained the main bones taken from the head of Mrs. Pamela Jordan, the murdered woman.

County Clerk John W. Hall summoned the witnesses, 54 in number, to the court room and administered the oath. The state has 29 and the defense 25.

The four Jordan boys, upon whose testimony the salient features of this important case will hinge, came to the trial in custody of Sadie Hamor, matron of the Scioto County Children's Home. Fred and George Jordan, the youngest, wore white sailor blouses and straw hats. "There they are," exclaimed many as the boys made their way through the crowd.

When Clerk John W. Hall called the name of George Jordan the prisoner arose and held up his right hand. His counsel was compelled to tell him that the court official had reference to George Jordan, his eight year old son and not to him.

After the witnesses were sworn Judge Thomas summoned the attorneys in the case to his bench and held a short conference relative to the controversy that has arisen between the attorneys for the defense and the prosecution concerning the request of Attorney Theo. K. Funk to see the Jordan boys without witnesses present.

CO. K HAS SECURED 25 NEW ENLISTMENTS

Recruits are being secured and are passing the medical examination each day, according to Capt. Joseph Horchow, ranking officer Company K, Ohio National Guards. Eight passed the examination Tuesday afternoon, making a total of twenty-five accepted enlistments since Saturday night.

There will be a special meeting of both the old and new members of Company K, Wednesday evening at 7:30. The meeting will be held at the armory, Seventh and Chillicothe streets. Every man is urged to be present. "We have some very important business to discuss, and it is imperative that every one of them be there," said Capt. Horchow.

The officers of the company desire several additional recruits. There are several who have been given the medical examination, but have not been passed by Dr. W. D. Schafer.

The names certified into the Adjutant General's office, Columbus, Wednesday, are: Andrew Bertram, Elmer Showalter, James Diment, William Johnson, Herman Havert, Katie, Hallie Parker, Oscar Barker and Jesse Rice.

Privates Hobson Parker and R. V. Nutter are now in charge of the recruiting tent, which is located on the Gallia street esplanade. Sergeant Clifford B. Anderson has been transferred to the armory.

Horse Dashes Into Auto; Machine Badly Damaged

A peculiar accident recently took place in front of Mrs. V. S. Holmes' farm, near Effort.

Rev. C. L. Dick, pastor of the South Webster Methodist church, was out for a little ride in his automobile with his family, and as they neared the Holmes farm, according to his story, a loose horse belonging to Mrs. Holmes dashed at full speed into his machine, smashing the front in. None of the occupants of the car was injured by the collision. The horse escaped with a few cuts. Presumably, the horse became frightened at the glare of the headlights. The windshield, the headlights and the radiator were damaged.

Charged With Driving Around Wrong Side Of Car

Alan N. Jordan, proprietor of the Washington hotel, and George A. Goodman, of the Gilbert Grocery company, have been ordered to appear in the mayor's court to answer to charges of violating the traffic ordinance.

Both gentlemen are accused of driving around the left side of a street car on Chillicothe street, traffic rules prohibiting this practice in the business or congested district to avoid danger of accidents.

VICTIM IS BETTER

Edward Hammond, resident of Firebrick, Ky., who last Saturday night received a fractured skull in a free-for-all fight, in which six persons took part, has taken a change for the better, and it is now believed that he will recover.

He is conscious most of the time and his general condition was better today. Vaneburg officials are looking into the trouble that led to Hammond receiving a fractured skull. It is claimed that someone hit Hammond over the head with a chair.

Rebel Leaders And Supporters Flocking To Carranza Standard

When Charles Horr was attending a directors' meeting of the Ohio Valley Bank, Tuesday evening, unknown parties deliberately climbed into his new Studebaker machine and drove off with it. It was not found until 11 o'clock, a vigorous search resulting in the machine being located on Campbell avenue, near the Harrison-Walker brick plant, in the East End. It was not damaged and was evidently appropriated by "joy-riders," who after enjoying a spin around the city with immunity, left the car anchored on Campbell avenue.

Auto thieves must have designs on machines owned in the Horr family, as just a week ago last Sunday they stole Will Horr's Ford machine and no trace of it has ever been found. This machine was stolen from in front of Bigelow M. E. church.

Abandoning all hope of finding the car, Mr. Horr, accompanied by Mrs. Horr, left last week for their home in Tucuman, N. M. Mr. Horr is a brother of Charles Horr.

It was 7:30 o'clock last night when Charles Horr drove up to the Ohio Valley bank and parked his machine on the Sixth street side of the bank. At the close of the directors' meeting at 9 o'clock Mr. Horr started off his machine. He only to find it missing. A search party was formed after the police had been notified. A trip was made to the ferryboat landings to

JAIL DELIVERY AT Ironton; FIVE PRISONERS GET FREEDOM

Ironton, O., June 28.—Lawrence Co. was furnished some time Tuesday with a jail delivery. For ten years the people of the county have rested contentedly with the idea that they had a jail which would hold all inmates, regardless of anything. But they now realize their mistake.

The escaped prisoners are Sol Langer, Louis Young and Paul Webb, charged with non support, and John Rowe and Robert Johnson, charged with highway robbery.

The delivery was not discovered until breakfast was served. In some way the prisoners unlocked the doors leading from the cells to the corridor.

get a trace of the machine, but they were fruitless trips. At 11 o'clock a machine was seen near the Harrison-Walker brick plant with all lights turned out. At a glance Mr. Horr recognized the car as his. It was not damaged in the least and Mr. Horr stated today he would pay a liberal reward to any one giving information that would result in the apprehension of the parties who so boldly stole his car.

PLANNING A FINE VACATION

Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker, pastor of Trinity M. E. church is planning a month's vacation trip. Rev. and Mrs. Strecker will visit her parents and other relatives at Amesville and from there they will go to Marietta to visit his parents and other relatives. From Marietta Rev. and Mrs. Strecker, her parents and his parents will go to Chautauque, N. Y., to spend about two weeks.

Rushdown Man Enlists Henry Payton, aged 22, of Rushdown, Tuesday enlisted at the local recruiting office in the Turley building, which is in charge of Corporal Barnett. Payton will be assigned to the Columbus Barracks.

Going to Philadelphia. Attorney Henry T. Bannon will leave Wednesday for Philadelphia, having been called there on legal business for the N. & W.

Tom Moore In The City

Tom Moore, who recently returned from the Cincinnati workhouse, called at the police station Wednesday morning after some personal belongings he had left behind at the time he went to the Queen City. Tom is all riled up because relatives had his aged and widowed mother committed to the Athens hospital during the time he was incarcerated.

Business Visitor. Isaac Levi, a former Portsmouth wholesale liquor dealer, now of Cincinnati, was a business visitor here Monday.

Seek a position through TIMES WANT ADS. Employers of labor read them carefully.

Another Automobile Stolen Last Night, Found In The City

El Paso, Texas, June 28.—Fresh cause for apprehension was found along the border today in news of the gathering of strong forces of former Villa sympathizers under notorious chieftains in the vicinity of Juarez and the close surveillance by the civil and military authorities on former adherents, who are now refugees in El Paso.

General Jose Flores, commanding 800 infantry men, is reported in Juarez making peace with the defacto government. General Manuel Randa, once a Villa subordinate known to be across the Rio Grande, and Manuel Mordinavetta and Jose Yazbel Rotes, also, have taken advantage of the amnesty granted by Carranza. Still another former Villa leader, Colonel Maximo Cantillo, has joined General Gonzales' garrison in Juarez. Castillo, who has been blamed for the dynamiting of the Cuernavaca tunnel in February, 1914, in which 25 Americans and 50 Mexicans lost their lives, recently returned to Mexico via Vera Cruz, from Cuba, where he went after being released from custody after the Cuernavaca crime.

The bandit raid near Machita, which resulted in the murder of William Barker and his bride, still was a subject of speculation today in connection with the presence of the former Villa followers in Juarez and the apparent lack of protection afforded the border from bandits. Their probable activities in the event of hostilities gave rise to numerous alarmist theories.

Although the embargo of munitions still is enforced rigidly at points of entry, that regarding food is not. Several wagon-loads of foodstuffs held up at the international bridges were released today after the consigners received permission from Washington to send them across, in response to protests against detention of the goods. That the food shortage is becoming more acute in the interior of Mexico was declared by arrivals from the south, who told of bread lines in Chihuahua City, Durango and Tarrason, and brought pictures to substantiate their statements.

Mexican refugees who reached the border today from the mining districts of Southern Chihuahua brought stories of the organization of "dynamite squads" in General Trevino's army. They said it is planned that, should it become apparent in the event of war that the defacto troops could not hold the railroads to destroy them and the detachments now stationed along the Mexican Central and the Mexican Northwestern will be concentrated at Chihuahua City. Bombs and hand grenades, it was said, were being made by plugging the ends of small pipes after filling them with powder, nails and scrap-iron.

Arrival of the first national guardsmen is being awaited with interest. Arrangements virtually have been completed for their camp sites, provisioning and drilling by regular army officers.

Mr. Fieger Returns Wednesday Frederick E. Fieger, general manager of the Whitaker-Glessner steel plant, will return Wednesday morning from a business trip to Pittsburgh for his firm.

Plumbers Elect Officers

WILL HOLD BAZAAR

The Hope Circle of Hutchins Street Baptist church will hold a handkerchief bazaar at the Brand and Lawson furniture store on Lawson and Kleveuth street, all day Saturday.

At the weekly session of the Journeymen Plumbers' Union held Tuesday evening the annual election of officers took place as follows:

President—Fred Burkhardt. Vice President—Henry Egbert. Recording Secretary—Alfred Briggs. Financial Secretary—Edward Switalski. Treasurer—Howard Monk. Inside Sentinel—William Cline. Statistician—Thomas Bassler.

BIRTHS

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bourgholtzer at their home, No. 1829 Oakland avenue, Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. The child is their first born. Mr. Bourgholtzer is now in charge of the Millbrook pavilion.

A Brazilian Household Pet. Brazilians train a snake called the gibbon as a rat catcher. It is fifteen feet long, is harmless to the human being, becomes quite a household pet, is lazy in the daytime, but at night roams about the house in quest of its prey—rats. These animals it promptly kills by twisting their necks. When Brazilians have to pass from room to room in the dark they first put on their slippers. It would not be pleasant to plant one's bare feet on a cold, slimy snake of that size.
